Thanks

This is the fourth edition of English Grammar in Use. I wrote the original edition when I was a teacher at the Swan School of English, Oxford. I would like to repeat my thanks to my colleagues and students at the school for their help, encouragement and interest at that time.

Regarding the production of this fourth edition, I am grateful to Nóirín Burke, Annabel Marriott, Matthew Duffy, Liz Driscoll, Jane Walsh, Jeanette Alfoldi and Kamae Design. I would like to thank Cambridge University Press for permission to access the Cambridge International Corpus.

Thank you also to the following illustrators: Humberto Blanco, Paul Fellows, Sophie Joyce, Katie Mac, Ian Mitchell, Gillian Martin, Sandy Nicholls, Roger Penwill, Lisa Smith, Dave Whamond and Simon Williams.

To the student

This book is for students who want help with English grammar. It is written for you to use without a teacher. The book will be useful for you if you are not sure of the answers to questions like these: What is the difference between I did and I have done? When do we use will for the future? What is the structure after / wish? When do we say used to do and when do we say used to doing? When do we use the? What is the difference between like and as? These and many other points of English grammar are explained in the book and there are exercises on each point. Level The book is intended mainly for intermediate students (students who have already studied the basic grammar of English). It concentrates on those structures which intermediate students want to use, but which often cause difficulty. Some advanced students who have problems with grammar will also find the book useful. The book is not suitable for elementary learners. How the book is organised There are 145 units in the book. Each unit concentrates on a particular point of grammar. Some problems (for example, the present perfect or the use of the) are covered in more than one unit. For a list of units, see the Contents at the beginning of the book. Each unit consists of two facing pages. On the left there are explanations and examples; on the right there are exercises. At the back of the book there is a Key for you to check your answers to the exercises (page 336). There are also seven Appendices at the back of the book (pages 292–301). These include irregular verbs, summaries of verb forms, spelling and American English. Finally, there is a detailed Index at the back of the book (page 373). How to use the book The units are not in order of difficulty, so it is not intended that you work through the book from beginning to end. Every learner has different problems and you should use this book to help you with the grammar that you find difficult. It is suggested that you work in this way: Use the Contents and/or Index to find which unit deals with the point you are interested in.

If you are not sure which units you need to study, use the Study guide on page 326.
 Study the explanations and examples on the left-hand page of the unit you have chosen.

Do the exercises on the right-hand page.

Check your answers with the Key.

If your answers are not correct, study the left-hand page again to see what went wrong.

You can of course use the book simply as a reference book without doing the exercises.

Additional exercises

At the back of the book there are Additional exercises (pages 302–325). These exercises bring together some of the grammar points from a number of different units. For example, Exercise 16 brings together grammar points from Units 26–36. You can use these exercises for extra practice after you have studied and practised the grammar in the units concerned.

To the teacher

English Grammar in Use was written as a self-study grammar book, but teachers may also find it useful as additional course material in cases where further work on grammar is necessary.

The book will probably be most useful at middle- and upper-intermediate levels (where all or nearly all of the material will be relevant), and can serve both as a basis for revision and as a means for practising new structures. It will also be useful for some more advanced students who have problems with grammar and need a book for reference and practice. The book is not intended to be used by elementary learners.

The units are organised in grammatical categories (Present and past, Articles and nouns, Prepositions etc.). They are not ordered according to level of difficulty, so the book should not be worked through from beginning to end. It should be used selectively and flexibly in accordance with the grammar syllabus being used and the difficulties students are having.

The book can be used for immediate consolidation or for later revision or remedial work. It might be used by the whole class or by individual students needing extra help. The left-hand pages (explanations and examples) are written for the student to use individually, but they may of course be used by the teacher as a source of ideas and information on which to base a lesson. The student then has the left-hand page as a record of what has been taught and can refer to it in the future. The exercises can be done individually, in class or as homework. Alternatively (and additionally), individual students can be directed to study certain units of the book by themselves if they have particular difficulties not shared by other students in their class. Don't forget the Additional exercises at the back of the book (see To the student).

This fourth edition of English Grammar in Use has been revised and updated. There are no new units, but some of the exercises have been rewritten or replaced.

An edition of English Grammar in Use without the Key is available. Some teachers may prefer this for use with their students.

An online version of English Grammar in Use is also available.

English Gramar in Use

Present continuous (I am doing)

A

Study this example situation:

Sarah is in her car. She is on her way to work. She is driving to work.

This means: she is driving now, at the time of speaking. The action is not finished.

Am/is/are + -ing is the present continuous:

1	am	(= I'm)	driving
he/she/it	is	(= he's etc.)	working
we/you/they	are	(= we're etc.)	doing etc.

I am doing something = I'm in the middle of doing it; I've started doing it and I haven't finished:

- Please don't make so much noise. I'm trying to work. (not I try)
- 'Where's Mark?' 'He's having a shower.' (not He has a shower)
- Let's go out now. It isn't raining any more. (not It doesn't rain)
- (at a party) Hi, Jane. Are you enjoying the party? (not Do you enjoy)
- What's all that noise? What's going on? (= What's happening?)

Sometimes the action is not happening at the time of speaking. For example:

Steve is talking to a friend on the phone. He says:

I'm reading a really good book at the moment.
It's about a man who ...

Steve is not reading the book at the time of speaking.

He means that he has started it, but has not finished it yet.

He is in the middle of reading it.

Some more examples:

- Kate wants to work in Italy, so she's learning Italian. (but perhaps she isn't learning Italian at the time of speaking)
- Some friends of mine are building their own house. They hope to finish it next summer.

You can use the present continuous with today / this week / this year etc. (periods around now):

- A: You're working hard today. (not You work hard today)
 - в: Yes, I have a lot to do.
- The company I work for isn't doing so well this year.

We use the present continuous when we talk about changes happening around now, especially with these verbs:

get change become increase rise fall grow improve begin start

- Is your English getting better? (not Does your English get better)
- The population of the world is increasing very fast. (not increases)
- At first I didn't like my job, but I'm beginning to enjoy it now. (not I begin)

1.1 The sentences on the right follow those on the left. Which sentence goes with which?

Present simple (I do)

Study this example situation:

Alex is a bus driver, but now he is in bed asleep. He is not driving a bus. (He is asleep.)

but He drives a bus. (He is a bus driver.)

Drive(s)/work(s)/do(es) etc. is the present simple:

I/we/you/they drive/work/do etc.

he/she/it drives/works/does etc.

	the time or repeatedly, or that something is true in general:
-	 Nurses look after patients in hospitals.
	 I usually go away at weekends.
	☐ The earth goes round the sun.
8	The cafe opens at 7.30 in the morning.

We use do/does to make questions and negative sentences:

	do does	I/we/you/they he/she/it	work? drive? do?	I/we/you/they he/she/it	THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE	work drive do
--	------------	----------------------------	------------------------	----------------------------	--	---------------------

- I don't go away very often.

For spelling (-s or -es), see Appendix 6.

- What does this word mean? (not What means this word?)
- Rice doesn't grow in cold climates.

In the following examples, do is also the main verb (do you do / doesn't do etc.):

- 'What do you do?' 'I work in a shop.'
- He's always so lazy. He doesn't do anything to help.

We use the present simple to say how often we do things:

- I get up at 8 o'clock every morning.
- How often do you go to the dentist?
- Julie doesn't drink tea very often.
- Robert usually goes away two or three times a year.

I promise / I apologise etc.

Sometimes we do things by saying something. For example, when you promise to do something, you can say 'I promise ...'; when you suggest something, you can say 'I suggest ...':

- I promise I won't be late. (not I'm promising)
- 'What do you suggest I do?' 'I suggest that you ...'

In the same way we say: I apologise ... / I advise ... / I insist ... / I agree ... / I refuse ... etc.

Present continuous and present simple 1 (I am doing and I do)

Compare:

Present continuous (I am doing)

We use the continuous for things happening at or around the time of speaking. The action is not complete.

I am doing future past now

- The water is boiling. Can you turn it off?
- Listen to those people. What language are they speaking?
- Let's go out. It isn't raining now.
- "I'm busy." 'What are you doing?"
- I'm getting hungry. Let's go and eat. Kate wants to work in Italy, so she's
- learning Italian. The population of the world is increasing very fast.

We use the continuous for temporary situations:

- I'm living with some friends until I find a place of my own.
- A: You're working hard today.
 - в: Yes, I have a lot to do.

See Unit 1 for more information.

Present simple (I do)

We use the simple for things in general or things that happen repeatedly.

I do future past now

- Water boils at 100 degrees Celsius.
- Excuse me, do you speak English?
- It doesn't rain very much in summer.
- What do you usually do at weekends? I always get hungry in the afternoon.
- Most people learn to swim when they are children.
- Every day the population of the world increases by about 200,000 people.

We use the simple for permanent situations:

- My parents live in London. They have lived there all their lives.
- Joe isn't lazy. He works hard most of the time.

See Unit 2 for more information.

I always do and I'm always doing

I always do (something) = I do it every time:

I always go to work by car. (not I'm always going)

'I'm always doing something' has a different meaning. For example:

I'm always losing things = I lose things very often, perhaps too often, or more often than normal.

More examples:

- You're always playing computer games. You should do something more active. (= You play computer games too often)
- Tim is never satisfied. He's always complaining. (= He complains too much)

Study this example:

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was an Austrian musician and composer. He lived from 1756 to 1791. He started composing at the age of five and wrote more than 600 pieces of music. He was only 35 years old when he died.

Lived/started/wrote/was/died are all past simple.

5.1 Read what Laura says about a typical working day:

I usually get up at 7 o'clock and have a big breakfast. I walk to work, which takes me about half an hour. I start work at 8.45. I never have lunch. I finish work at 5 o'clock, I'm always tired when I get home. I usually cook a meal in the evening. I don't usually go out. I go to bed at about 11 o'clock, and I always sleep well.

Yesterday was a typical working day for Laura. Write what she did or didn't do yesterday.

1	She got up	at 7 o'clock.	7	at 5 o'cloc	k.
2	She	a big breakfast.	8	tired when home	e.

Past continuous (I was doing)

В

Study this example situation:

Yesterday Karen and Jim played tennis. They started at 10 o'clock and finished at 11.30.

So, at 10.30 they were playing tennis.

They were playing = they were in the middle of playing. They had not finished playing.

Was/were -ing is the past continuous:

I/he/she/it was we/you/they were playing doing working etc.

I was doing something = I was in the middle of doing something at a certain time. The action or situation had already started before this time, but had not finished:

I started doing	I was doing	I finished doing
☐ What were you o	ar I was living in Brazil. doing at 10 o'clock last r , but she wasn't lookin g		now

Past continuous (in the middle of an action) I was walking home when I met Dan. (in the middle of walking home) Kate was watching TV when we

Past simple (complete action)

- I walked home after the party last night. (= all the way, completely)
- Kate watched television a lot when she was ill last year.

We often use the past simple and the past continuous together to say that something happened in the middle of something else:

- Matt phoned while we were having dinner.
- It was raining when I got up.

arrived.

- I saw you in the park yesterday. You were sitting on the grass and reading a book.
- I hurt my back while I was working in the garden.

But we use the past simple to say that one thing happened after another:

I was walking along the road when I saw Dan. So I stopped, and we had a chat.

Compare:

- When Karen arrived, we were having dinner. (= we had already started before she arrived)
- When Karen arrived, we had dinner. (= Karen arrived, and then we had dinner)

Some verbs (for example, know and want) are not normally used in the continuous (see Unit 4A):

- We were good friends. We knew each other well. (not We were knowing)
- I was enjoying the party, but Chris wanted to go home. (not was wanting)

Present perfect 1 (I have done)

Study this example situation:

Tom is looking for his key. He can't find it. He has lost his key.

He has lost his key = He lost it recently, and he still doesn't have it.

Have/has lost is the present perfect simple:

I/we/they/you have (= I've etc.)

he/she/it has (= he's etc.)

finished lost done
been etc.

The present perfect simple is have/has + past participle. The past participle often ends in -ed (finished/decided etc.), but many important verbs are irregular (lost/done/written etc.).

For a list of irregular verbs, see Appendix 1.

В	When we say that 'something has happened', this is usually new information:
	Ow! I've cut my finger.
	The road is closed. There's been (there has been) an accident.
	(from the news) Police have arrested two men in connection with the robbery.
	When we use the present perfect, there is a connection with now. The action in the past has a result now:
	'Where's your key?' 'I don't know. I've lost it.' (= I don't have it now)
	He told me his name, but I've forgotten it. (= I can't remember it now)
	'Is Sally here?' 'No, she's gone out.' (= she is out now)
	I can't find my bag. Have you seen it? (= Do you know where it is now?)

Note the difference between gone (to) and been (to):

James is on holiday. He has gone to Italy. (= he is there now or on his way there)

Jane is back home now. She has been to Italy. (= she has now come back)

You can use the present perfect with just, already and yet.

Just = a short time ago:

'Are you hungry?' 'No, I've just had lunch.'

Hello. Have you just arrived?

We use already to say that something happened sooner than expected:

'Don't forget to pay your electricity bill.' 'I've already paid it.'

'What time is Mark leaving?' 'He's already left.'
Yet = until now. Yet shows that the speaker is expecting something to happen. Use yet only in questions and negative sentences:

Has it stopped raining yet?

I've written the email, but I haven't sent it yet.

You can also use the past simple (did, went, had etc.) in the examples on this page. So you can say:

'Is Sally here?' 'No, she went out.' or 'No, she's gone out.'

'Are you hungry?' 'No, I just had lunch.' or 'No, I've just had lunch.'

8.1 You ask people about things they have done. Write questions with ever.

Present perfect continuous (I have been doing)

A

It has been raining

Study this example situation:

Is it raining? No, but the ground is wet.

It has been raining.

Have/has been -ing is the present perfect continuous:

I/we/they/you have (= I've etc.) he/she/it has (= he's etc.)

doing waiting playing etc.

We use the present perfect continuous for an activity that has recently stopped or just stopped. There is a connection with now:

- You're out of breath. Have you been running? (= you're out of breath now)
- Paul is very tired. He's been working very hard. (= he's tired now)
- □ Why are your clothes so dirty? What have you been doing?
- I've been talking to Amanda about the problem and she agrees with me.
- Where have you been? I've been looking for you everywhere.

В

It has been raining for two hours.

Study this example situation:

It began raining two hours ago and it is still raining.

How long has it been raining?
It has been raining for two hours.

We use the present perfect continuous in this way especially with how long, for ... and since The activity is still happening (as in this example) or has just stopped.

- ☐ How long have you been learning English? (= you're still learning English)
- Tim is still watching TV. He's been watching TV all day.
- Where have you been? I've been looking for you for the last half hour.
- Chris hasn't been feeling well recently.

You can use the present perfect continuous for actions repeated over a period of time:

- Silvia is a very good tennis player. She's been playing since she was eight.
- Every morning they meet in the same cafe. They've been going there for years.

C

Compare I am doing (see Unit 1) and I have been doing:

I am doing present continuous

Don't disturb me now. I'm working.

now

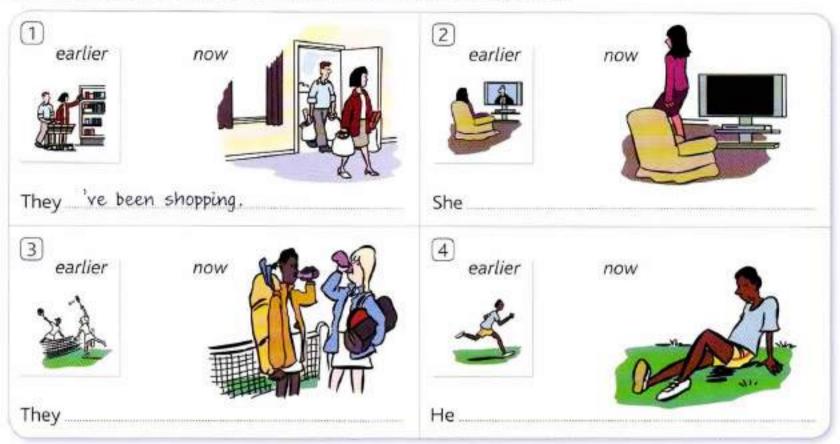

- We need an umbrella. It's raining.
- Hurry up! We're waiting.

I have been doing present perfect continuous

now

- I've been working hard. Now I'm going to have a break.
- ☐ The ground is wet. It's been raining.
 - We've been waiting for an hour.

9.1 What have these people been doing or what has been happening?

- 9.2 Write a question for each situation.
 - 1 You meet Paul as he is leaving the swimming pool.
 You ask: (you / swim?) Have you been swimming?
 - 2 You have just arrived to meet a friend who is waiting for you.
 You ask: (you / wait / long?)
 - 3 You meet a friend in the street. His face and hands are very dirty. You ask: (what / you / do?)
 - 4 A friend of yours is now working in a shop. You want to know how long. You ask: (how long / you / work / there?)
 - 5 A friend tells you about his job he sells mobile phones. You want to know how long. You ask: (how long / you / sell / mobile phones?)
- 9.3 Read the situations and complete the sentences.
 - 1 It's raining. The rain started two hours ago. It 's been raining for two hours.
 - 2 We are waiting for the bus. We started waiting 20 minutes ago.
 We for 20 minutes.
 - 3 I'm learning Spanish. I started classes in December.
 - I since December.
 - 4 Jessica is working in a supermarket. She started working there on 18 January.
 - since 18 January.
 - 5 Our friends always spend their holidays in Italy. They started going there years ago. for years.
- 9.4 Put the verb into the present continuous (I am -ing) or present perfect continuous (I have been -ing).
 - (I have been -ing).

 1 Maria has been learning (Maria / learn) English for two years.
 - 2 Hello, Tom. (I / look) for you. Where have you been?
 - 3 Why (you / look) at me like that? Stop it!
 - 4 Linda is a teacher. (she / teach) for ten years.
 - 5 (I / think) about what you said and I've decided to take your advice.
 - 6 'Is Paul on holiday this week?' 'No, _____ (he / work).'
 - 7 Sarah is very tired. (she / work) very hard recently.

Present perfect continuous and simple (I have been doing and I have done)

A

Study this example situation:

There is paint on Kate's clothes. She has been painting her bedroom.

Has been painting is the present perfect continuous.

We are thinking of the activity. It does not matter whether it has been finished or not. In this example, the activity (painting the bedroom) has not been finished.

Her bedroom was green. Now it is yellow. She has painted her bedroom.

Has painted is the present perfect simple.

Here, the important thing is that something has been finished. Has painted is a completed action. We are interested in the result of the activity (the painted bedroom), not the activity itself.

	В	Compare	these	exampl	es:
--	---	---------	-------	--------	-----

- My hands are very dirty. I've been repairing my bike.
- Joe has been eating too much recently.
 He should eat less.
- It's nice to see you again. What have you been doing since we last met?
- Where have you been? Have you been playing tennis?
- My bike is OK again now. I've repaired it.
- Somebody has eaten all the chocolates. The box is empty.
- Where's the book I gave you? What have you done with it?
- Have you ever played tennis?

We use the continuous to say how long (for something that is still happening):

- How long have you been reading that book?
- Lisa is writing emails. She's been writing emails all morning.
- They've been playing tennis since 2 o'clock.
- I'm learning Arabic, but I haven't been learning it very long.

We use the simple to say how much, how many or how many times:

- How much of that book have you read?
- Lisa is writing emails. She's sent lots of emails this morning.
- They've played tennis three times this week.
- I'm learning Arabic, but I haven't learnt very much yet.

Some verbs (for example, know/like/believe) are not normally used in the continuous:

- I've known about the problem for a long time. (not I've been knowing)
- How long have you had that camera? (not have you been having)

For a list of these verbs, see Unit 4A. For have, see Unit 17.

But note that you can use want and mean in the present perfect continuous:

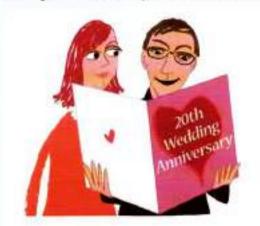

I've been meaning to phone Jane, but I keep forgetting.

1	Tom started reading a book two hours ago. He is still reading it and now he is on page 53. He has been reading for two hours. (read) He has read 53 pages so far. (read)

For and since When ... ? and How long ... ?

We use for and since to say how long something has been happening. We use for + a period of time (two hours, six weeks etc.): I've been waiting for two hours. for two hours two hours ago for two hours 20 minutes five days 8 o'clock a long time six months 50 years April a week lunchtime ages years Sally has been working here for six months. (not since six months) I haven't seen Tom for three days.

It is possible to leave out for (but not usually in negative sentences):

- They've been married (for) ten years. (with or without for)
- They haven't had a holiday for ten years. (you must use for)

We do not use for + all ... (all day / all my life etc.):

I've lived here all my life. (not for all my life)

You can use in instead of for in negative sentences (I haven't ... etc.):

They haven't had a holiday in ten years. (= for ten years)

Present perfect and past 1 (I have done and I did)

A

Study this example situation:

Tom is looking for his key. He can't find it.

He has lost his key. (present perfect)

This means that he doesn't have his key now.

Ten minutes later:

Now Tom has found his key. He has it now. Has he lost his key? No, he has found it.

Did he lose his key? Yes, he did.

He lost his key (past simple) but now he has found it. (present perfect)

The present perfect (something has happened) is a present tense. It always tells us about the situation now. 'Tom has lost his key' = he doesn't have his key now (see Unit 7).

The past simple (something happened) tells us only about the past. If somebody says 'Tom lost his key', this doesn't tell us whether he has the key now or not. It tells us only that he lost his key at some time in the past.

Do not use the present perfect if the situation now is different. Compare:

- They've gone away. They'll be back on Friday. (they are away now)
 They went away, but I think they're back at home now. (not They've gone)
- It has stopped raining now, so we don't need the umbrella. (it isn't raining now) It stopped raining for a while, but now it's raining again. (not It has stopped)

You can use the present perfect for new or recent happenings:

- 'I've repaired the washing machine. It's working OK now.' 'Oh, that's good.'
- 'Sally has had a baby! It's a boy.' 'That's great news.'

Usually, you can also use the past simple:

☐ I repaired the washing machine. It's working OK now.

Use the past simple (not the present perfect) for things that are not recent or new:

- Mozart was a composer. He wrote more than 600 pieces of music. (not has been ... has written)
- My mother grew up in Italy. (not has grown)

Compare:

- Did you know that somebody has invented a new type of washing machine?
- Who invented the telephone? (not has invented)

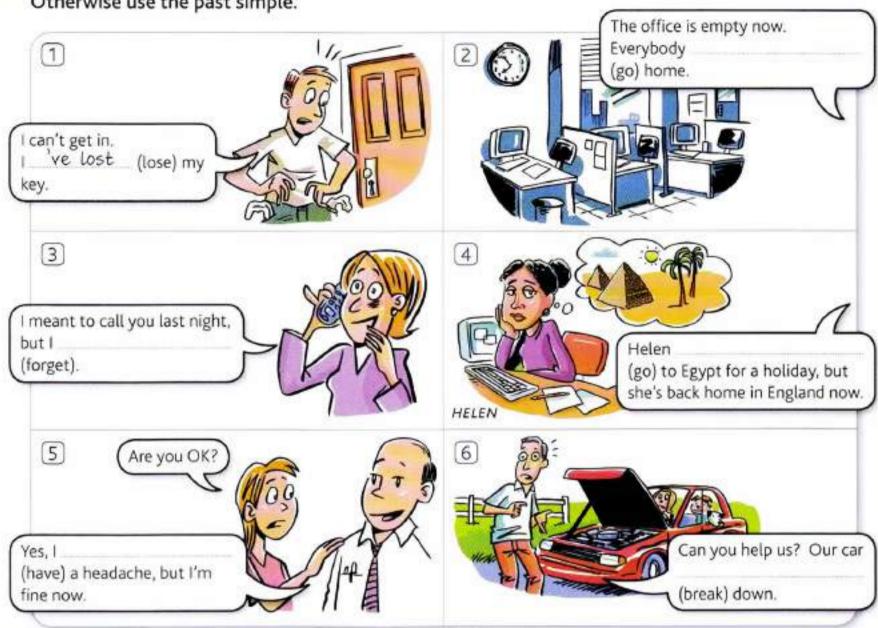

We use the present perfect to give new information (see Unit 7). But if we continue to talk about it, we normally use the past simple:

- A: Ow! I've burnt myself.
 - в: How did you do that? (not have you done)
 - A: I picked up a hot dish. (not have picked)
- ☐ A: Look! Somebody has spilt something on the sofa.
 - в: Well, it wasn't me. I didn't do it. (not hasn't been ... haven't done)

Past perfect (I had done)

A

Study this example situation:

Sarah went to a party last week. Paul went to the party too, but they didn't see each other. Paul left the party at 10.30 and Sarah arrived at 11 o'clock. So:

When Sarah arrived at the party, Paul wasn't there.

He had gone home.

Had gone is the past perfect (simple):

	(= I 'd etc.) (= he 'd etc.)	gone seen finished	etc.
--	---	--------------------------	------

The past perfect simple is had + past participle (gone/seen/finished etc).

Sometimes we talk about something that happened in the past:

Sarah arrived at the party.

This is the starting point of the story. Then, if we want to talk about things that happened before this time, we use the past perfect (had ...):

When Sarah arrived at the party, Paul had already gone home.

Some more examples:

- When we got home last night, we found that somebody had broken into the flat.
- Karen didn't want to go to the cinema with us because she'd already seen the movie.
- At first I thought I'd done the right thing, but I soon realised that I'd made a big mistake.
- The man sitting next to me on the plane was very nervous. He hadn't flown before.
 or ... He had never flown before.

Compare the present perfect (have seen etc.) and the past perfect (had seen etc.):

Present perfect have seen past

now

- Who is that woman? I've seen her before, but I can't remember where.
- We aren't hungry. We've just had lunch.
- The house is dirty. They haven't cleaned it for weeks.

Past perfect had seen

now

- I wasn't sure who she was. I'd seen her before, but I couldn't remember where.
- We weren't hungry. We'd just had lunch
- The house was dirty. They hadn't cleaned it for weeks.

Compare the past simple (left, was etc.) and the past perfect (had left, had been etc.):

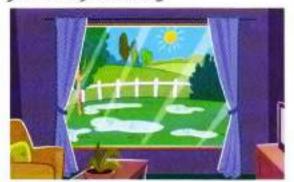

- A: Was Tom there when you arrived?
 - в: Yes, but he left soon afterwards.
- Kate wasn't at home when I phoned.
 She was at her mother's house.
- A: Was Tom there when you arrived?
 - B: No, he had already left.
- Kate had just got home when I phoned.
 She had been at her mother's house.

Used to (do)

A

Study this example situation:

a few years ago

Nicola doesn't travel much these days. She prefers to stay at home.

But she used to travel a lot.

She used to go away two or three times a year.

She used to travel a lot = she travelled a lot often in the past, but she doesn't do this any more.

she used to travel

past

she doesn't travel

these days

В

Something used to happen = it happened often in the past, but no longer happens:

- I used to play tennis a lot, but I don't play very much now.
- David used to spend a lot of money on clothes. These days he can't afford it.
- 'Do you go to the cinema much?' 'Not now, but I used to.' (= I used to go)

We also use used to ... for things that were true, but are not true any more:

- This building is now a furniture shop. It used to be a cinema.
- I used to think Mark was unfriendly, but now I realise he's a very nice person.
- I've started drinking tea recently. I never used to like it before.
- Lisa used to have very long hair when she was a child.

C

'I used to do something' is past. There is no present. You cannot say 'I use to do'. To talk about the present, use the present simple (I do).

Compare:

past	he used to play	we used to live	there used to be present	he plays	we live	there is

- We used to live in a small village, but now we live in London.
- There used to be four cinemas in the town. Now there is only one.

The normal question form is did (you) use to ... ?:

Did you use to eat a lot of sweets when you were a child?

The negative form is didn't use to ... (used not to ... is also possible):

I didn't use to like him. (or I used not to like him.)

E

Compare I used to do and I was doing:

- I used to watch TV a lot. (= I watched TV often in the past, but I no longer do this)
- I was watching TV when Rob called. (= I was in the middle of watching TV)

F

Do not confuse I used to do and I am used to doing (see Unit 61). The structures and meanings are different:

- I used to live alone. (= I lived alone in the past, but I no longer live alone)
- I am used to living alone. (= I live alone, and I don't find it strange or difficult because I've been living alone for some time)

18.1 Complete the sentences wi	th use(d) to + a suitable verb.

7 There a hotel near the airport, but it closed a long time ago.

8 When you lived in New York, to the theatre very often?

18.2 Compare what Karen said five years ago and what she says today:

I am doing and I am going to do We use I am doing (present continuous) when we say what we have arranged to do – for example, arranged to meet somebody, arranged to go somewhere: What time are you meeting Ann this evening? I'm leaving tomorrow. I've got my plane ticket. I am going to do something = I've decided to do it (but perhaps not arranged to do it): 'Your shoes are dirty.' 'Yes, I know. I'm going to clean them.' (= I've decided to clean them, but I haven't arranged to clean them) I've decided not to stay here any longer. Tomorrow I'm going to look for somewhere else to stay. Often the difference is very small and either form is possible.
You can also say that 'something is going to happen' in the future. For example: The man isn't looking where he is going. He is going to walk into the wall. When we say that 'something is going to happen', the situation now makes this clear. The man is walking towards the wall now, so we can see that he is going to walk into it. going to situation now future happening
Some more examples: Look at those black clouds! It's going to rain. (the clouds are there now) I feel terrible. I think I'm going to be sick. (I feel terrible now) The economic situation is bad now and things are going to get worse. I was going to do something = I intended to do it, but didn't do it: We were going to travel by train, but then we decided to go by car instead. Peter was going to do the exam, but he changed his mind. I was just going to cross the road when somebody shouted 'Stop!' You can say that 'something was going to happen' (but didn't happen): I thought it was going to rain, but it didn't.

Will/shall 1

A	We use I'll (= I will) when we've just decided to do something. When we say 'I'll do something', we announce our decision: Oh, I've left the door open. I'll go and shut it. 'What would you like to drink?' 'I'll have an orange juice, please.' 'Did you phone Lucy?' 'Oh no, I forgot. I'll phone her now.' You cannot use the present simple (I do / I go etc.) in these sentences: I'll go and shut the door. (not I go and shut) We often use I think I'll and I don't think I'll: I feel a bit hungry. I think I'll have something to eat. I don't think I'll go out tonight. I'm too tired.
	In spoken English the negative of will is usually won't (= will not): I can see you're busy, so I won't stay long.
	Do not use will to talk about what you decided before (see Units 19–20): I'm going on holiday next Saturday. (not I'll go) Are you working tomorrow? (not Will you work)
C	We often use will in these situations:
	Offering to do something That bag looks heavy. I'll help you with it. (not I help) Agreeing to do something A: Can you give Tim this book? B: Sure, I'll give it to him when I see him this afternoon.
	Promising to do something Thanks for lending me the money. I'll pay you back on Friday. I won't tell anyone what happened. I promise.
	Asking somebody to do something (Will you ?) Will you please turn the music down? I'm trying to concentrate.
	You can use won't to say that somebody refuses to do something: I've tried to give her advice, but she won't listen. The car won't start. (= the car 'refuses' to start)
D	Shall I ? Shall we ?
	Shall is used mostly in the questions shall I ? / shall we ? We use shall I ? / shall we ? to ask somebody's opinion (especially in offers or suggestions): Shall I open the window? (= Do you want me to open the window?) I've got no money. What shall I do? (= What do you suggest?) 'Shall we go?' 'Just a minute. I'm not ready yet.' 'Where shall we have lunch?' 'Let's go to Marino's.' Compare shall I ? and will you ?: Shall I shut the door? (= Do you want me to shut it?)
	○ Will you shut the door? (= I want you to shut it)

A	We do not use will to say what somebody has already arranged or decided to do: Diane is working next week. (not Diane will work) Are you going to watch anything on TV this evening? (not Will you watch) For 'is working' and 'Are you going to?', see Units 19–20.
	But often, when we talk about the future, we are not talking about what somebody has decided to do. For example:
	Kate is doing an exam next week. Chris and Joe are talking about it. Yes, she'll pass easily.	She'll pass does not mean 'she has decided to pass'. Joe is saying what he knows or believes will happen.
	Do you think Kate will pass	He is predicting the future.
	the exam?	When we predict a future happening or situation, we use will/won't.
	Some more examples: They've been away a long time. When they return, they'll find a lot of changes here. 'Where will you be this time next year?' 'I'll be in Japan.' That plate is hot. If you touch it, you'll burn yourself. Tom won't pass the exam. He hasn't studied hard enough. Anna looks completely different now. You won't recognise her. When will you get your exam results?
В	We often use will ('ll) with:
	probably (I'm) sure (I) think (I) don't think I wonder I wonder I'll probably be home late tonig Don't worry about the exam. I' Do you think Sarah will like the I don't think the exam will be well wonder. I wonder what will happen.	m sure you 'll pass. e present we bought her?
	After I hope, we generally use the present (will is also possible I hope Kate passes the exam. (or I hope Kate will passes I hope it doesn't rain tomorrow.	175
C	Generally we use will to talk about the future , but sometimes For example: Don't phone Ann now. She'll be busy. (= she'll be be
D	I shall / we shall
	Normally we use shall only with I and we . You can say: I shall or I will (I'll) we shall or we will (we'll) I shall be late this evening. (or I will be) We shall probably go to France in June. (or We will probably go)
	In spoken English we normally use I'll and we'll: We'll probably go to France.
	The negative of shall is shall not or shan't: I shan't be here tomorrow. (or I won't be)
	Do not use shall with he/she/it/you/they : She will be very angry. (not She shall be)

A

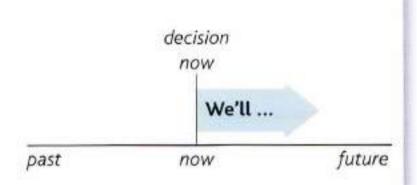

Future actions

Study the difference between will and (be) going to:

will ('ll): We use will to announce a new decision. The party is a new idea.

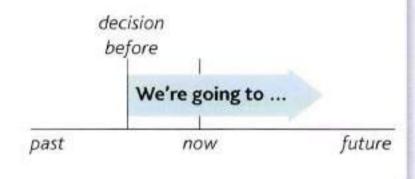

Later that day, Helen meets Dan:

(be) going to: We use (be) going to when we have already decided to do something. Helen had already decided to invite lots of people before she spoke to Dan.

Compare:

В

- Gary phoned while you were out.' 'OK. I'll call him back.'
 - 'Gary phoned while you were out.' 'Yes, I know. I'm going to call him back.'
- 'Anna is in hospital.' 'Oh really? I didn't know. I'll go and visit her.' 'Anna is in hospital.' 'Yes, I know. I'm going to visit her this evening.'

Future happenings and situations (predicting the future)

We use both will and going to to predict future happenings and situations. So you can say:

- ☐ I think the weather will be nice later. or
 - I think the weather is going to be nice later.
- Those shoes are well-made. They'll last a long time. or Those shoes are well-made. They're going to last a long time.

When we say something is going to happen, we know this from the situation now. What is happening now shows that something is going to happen in the future. For example:

- Look at those black clouds. It's going to rain. (not It will rain)
 - (We can see that it is going to rain from the clouds that are in the sky now.)
- I feel terrible. I think I'm going to be sick. (not I think I'll be sick)
 - (I think I'm going to be sick because I feel terrible now.)

Do not use will in this type of situation.

-	Complete the sentences using will ('II) or going	g to.

Study this example situation:

These people are standing in a queue to get into the cinema.

Half an hour from now, the cinema will be full. Everyone will be watching the film.

Three hours from now, the cinema will be empty. The film will have finished. Everyone will have gone home.

half an hour from now

three hours from now

В	I will be doing something (future continuous) = I will be in the middle of doing it: This time next week I'll be on holiday. I'll be lying on the beach or swimming in the sea. You have no chance of getting the job. You'll be wasting your time if you apply for it.
	Compare will be (do)ing and will (do): Don't phone between 7 and 8. We'll be having dinner. Let's wait for Liz to arrive and then we'll have dinner.
	Compare will be -ing with other continuous forms: At 10 o'clock yesterday, Sally was in her office. She was working. (past)

It's 10 o'clock now. She is in her office. She is working. (present)

At 10 o'clock tomorrow, she will be in her office. She will be working.

We also use will be sing to talk about complete actions in the future.

We also use will be -ing to talk about complete actions in the future.

For example:

- The government will be making a statement about the crisis later today.
- Will you be going away this summer?
- Later in the programme, I'll be talking to the Minister of Education ...
- Our best player is injured and won't be playing in the game on Saturday.

In these examples will be -ing is similar to (be) going to

D	We use will have (done) (future perfect) to say that something will already be complete before a time in the future. For example:

- Sally always leaves for work at 8.30 in the morning. She won't be at home at 9 o'clock she'll have gone to work.
- We're late. The film will already have started by the time we get to the cinema.

Compare will have (done) with other perfect forms:

Ted and Amy have been married for 24 years. (present perfect)
Next year they will have been married for 25 years.
When their son was born, they had been married for three years. (past perfect)

Study this example:
Will you phone me tomorrow? Yes, I'll phone you when I get home from work.	'I'll phone you when I get home' is a sentence with two parts: the main part: I'll phone you and the when-part: when I get home The time in the sentence is future (tomorrow), but we use a present tense (I get) in the when-part of the sentence. We do not use will in the when-part of the sentence.
The same thing happens after while / before / What are you going to do while I'm a	and see us. (not When you will be) be when you grow up? (not will grow) after / as soon as / until or till:

25.1 Complete the sentences using the verbs in brackets. All the sentences are about the future. Use

Unit 26

Can, could and (be) able to

We use can to say that something is possible or allowed, or that somebody has the ability to something. We use can + infinitive (can do / can see etc.): We can see the lake from our hotel. 'I don't have a pen.' 'You can use mine.' Can you speak any foreign languages? I can come and see you tomorrow if you like. The word 'dream' can be a noun or a verb.
	The negative is can't (= cannot): I'm afraid I can't come to the party on Friday.
В	You can say that somebody is able to do something, but can is more usual: We are able to see the lake from our hotel.
	But can has only two forms: can (present) and could (past). So sometimes it is necessary to use (be) able to. Compare:
	 I can't sleep. Tom can come tomorrow. Maria can speak French, Spanish and English. I haven't been able to sleep recently. Tom might be able to come tomorrow. Applicants for the job must be able to speak two foreign languages.
C	Sometimes could is the past of can. We use could especially with: see hear smell taste feel remember understand We had a lovely room in the hotel. We could see the lake. As soon as I walked into the room, I could smell gas. I was sitting at the back of the theatre and couldn't hear very well. We also use could to say that somebody had the general ability or permission to do something: My grandfather could speak five languages. We were totally free. We could do what we wanted. (= we were allowed to do)
D	Could and was able to We use could for general ability. But if you want to say that somebody did something in a specific situation, use was/were able to or managed to (not could): The fire spread through the building very quickly, but fortunately everybody was able to escape / managed to escape. (not could escape) We didn't know where David was, but we managed to find / were able to find him in the end. (not could find)
	Compare: Jack was an excellent tennis player when he was younger. He could beat anybody. (= he had the general ability to beat anybody) but Jack and Andy played a match yesterday. Andy played well, but Jack managed to beat him. (= he managed to beat him this time)
	The negative couldn't (could not) is possible in all situations: My grandfather couldn't swim. We looked for David everywhere, but we couldn't find him. Andy played well, but he couldn't beat Jack.

Unit 27

Could (do) and could have (done)

	We use could in a number of ways. Sometimes could is the past of can (see Unit 26): Listen. I can hear something. (now) I listened. I could hear something. (past)
	But could is not only used in this way. We also use could to talk about possible actions now or in the future (especially to make suggestions). For example:
	A: What shall we do tonight? B: We could go to the cinema. What shall we do tonight? We could go to the cinema.
	A: When you go to Paris next month, you could stay with Sarah. B: Yes, I suppose I could.
	Can is also possible in these sentences ('We can go to the cinema.' etc.). Could is less sure than can.
3	We also use could (not can) for actions that are not realistic. For example: I'm so tired, I could sleep for a week. (not I can sleep for a week)
	Compare can and could: I can stay with Sarah when I go to Paris. (realistic) Maybe I could stay with Sarah when I go to Paris. (possible, but less sure) This is a wonderful place. I could stay here for ever. (unrealistic)
	We also use could (not can) to say that something (a situation or a happening) is possible now or in the future. The meaning is similar to might or may (see Unit 29): The story could be true, but I don't think it is. (not can be true) I don't know what time Lisa is coming. She could get here at any time.
	Compare can and could: The weather can change very quickly in the mountains. (in general) The weather is nice now, but it could change. (the weather now, not in general)
	We use could have (done) to talk about the past. Compare: I'm so tired, I could sleep for a week. (now) I was so tired, I could have slept for a week. (past) The situation is bad, but it could be worse. (now) The situation was bad, but it could have been worse. (past)
	Something could have happened = it was possible but did not happen: Why did you stay at a hotel when you were in Paris? You could have stayed with Sarah. (you didn't stay with her) David was lucky. He could have hurt himself when he fell, but he's OK.
	We use couldn't to say that something would not be possible: I couldn't live in a big city. I'd hate it. (= it wouldn't be possible for me) Everything is fine right now. Things couldn't be better.
	For the past we use couldn't have (done): We had a really good holiday. It couldn't have been better. The trip was cancelled last week. Paul couldn't have gone anyway because he was ill. (= it would not have been possible for him to go)

Must and can't

Study this example:

You can use must to say that you believe something is certain:

- You've been travelling all day. You must be tired. (Travelling is tiring and you've been travelling all day, so you must be tired.)
- 'Joe is a hard worker.' 'Joe? You must be joking. He doesn't do anything.'
- Louise must get very bored in her job. She does the same thing every day.
- I'm sure Sally gave me her address. I must have it somewhere.

You can use can't to say that you believe something is not possible:

- You've just had lunch. You can't be hungry already. (People are not normally hungry just after eating a meal. You've just eaten, so you can't be hungry.)
- ☐ They haven't lived here for very long. They can't know many people.

Study the structure:

I/you/he (etc.)

must can't be (tired / hungry / at work etc.)
be (doing / going / joking etc.)
do / get / know / have etc.

For the past we use must have (done) and can't have (done). Study this example:

There's nobody at home. They must have gone out.

Martin and Lucy are standing at the door of their friends' house.

They have rung the doorbell twice, but nobody has answered. Lucy says:

They must have gone out.

- ☐ 'We used to live very near the motorway.' 'Did you? It must have been noisy.'
- 'I've lost one of my gloves.' 'You must have dropped it somewhere.'
- Sarah hasn't contacted me. She can't have got my message.
- Tom walked into a wall. He can't have been looking where he was going.

Study the structure:

I/you/he (etc.) must can't have been (asleep / at work etc.) been (doing / looking etc.) gone / got / known etc.

You can use couldn't have instead of can't have:

- Sarah couldn't have got my message.
- Tom couldn't have been looking where he was going.

28.1 Put in must or can't.

must

May and might 1

A

Study this example situation:

You are looking for Ben. Nobody is sure where he is, but you get some suggestions.

We use may or might to say that something is possible. Usually you can use may or might, so you can say:

- It may be true. or It might be true. (= perhaps it is true)
- She might know. or She may know.

The negative forms are may not and might not (or mightn't):

- It may not be true. (= perhaps it isn't true)
- She might not work here any more. (= perhaps she doesn't work here)

Study the structure:

I/you/he (etc.)	may might	(not)	be (true / in his office etc.) be (doing / working / having etc.) know / work / want etc.
-----------------	--------------	-------	---

- B For the past we use may have (done) or might have (done):
 - A: I wonder why Kate didn't answer her phone.
 - в: She may have been asleep. (= perhaps she was asleep)
 - A: I can't find my phone anywhere.
 - в: You might have left it at work. (= perhaps you left it at work)
 - A: Why wasn't Amy at the meeting yesterday?
 - B: She might not have known about it. (= perhaps she didn't know)
 - A: I wonder why David was in such a bad mood yesterday.
 - B: He may not have been feeling well. (= perhaps he wasn't feeling well)

Study the structure:

I/you/he (etc.)	may might	(not) have	been (asleep / at home etc.) been (doing / working / feeling etc.) known / had / wanted / left etc.
-----------------	--------------	------------	---

- Could is similar to may and might:
 - It's a strange story, but it could be true. (= it is possible that it's true)
 - You could have left your phone at work. (= it's possible that you left it there)

But couldn't (negative) is different from may not and might not. Compare:

- Sarah couldn't have got my message. Otherwise she would have replied.
 - (= it is not possible that she got my message)
- I wonder why Sarah hasn't replied to my message. I suppose she might not have got it.
 (= it's possible that she didn't get it so perhaps she did, perhaps she didn't)

Unit 30

May and might 2

A	We use may and might to talk about possible actions or happenings in the future: I haven't decided yet where to go on holiday. I may go to Ireland. (= perhaps I will go there) Take an umbrella with you. It might rain later. (= perhaps it will rain) The bus isn't always on time. We might have to wait a few minutes. (= perhaps we will have to wait)
	The negative forms are may not and might not (mightn't): Amy may not go out tonight. She isn't feeling well. (= perhaps she will not go out) There might not be enough time to discuss everything at the meeting. (= perhaps there will not be enough time)
	Compare will and may/might: I'll be late this evening. (for sure) I may/might be late this evening. (possible)
В	Usually you can use may or might. So you can say: I may go to Ireland. or I might go to Ireland. Jane might be able to help you. or Jane may be able to help you.
	But we use only might (not may) when the situation is not real: If they paid me better, I might work harder. (not I may work) The situation here is not real because they do not pay me well, so I'm not going to work harder.
C	There is a continuous form: may/might be -ing. Compare this with will be -ing: Don't phone at 8.30. I'll be watching the football on television. Don't phone at 8.30. I might be watching (or I may be watching) the football on TV. (= perhaps I'll be watching it)
	We also use may/might be -ing for possible plans. Compare: I'm going to Ireland in July. (for sure) I might be going (or I may be going) to Ireland soon. (possible) But you can also say 'I might go / I may go' with little difference in meaning.
D	Might as well
	Helen and Clare have just missed the bus. The buses run every hour.
	What shall we do? Shall we walk?
	We might as well. It's a nice day and I don't want to wait here for an hour.
	We might as well do something = We should do it because there is no better alternative. There is no reason not to do it.
	May as well is also possible.
	 A: What time are you going out? B: Well, I'm ready, so I might as well go now. Buses are so expensive these days, you might as well get a taxi. (= taxis are as good, no more expensive)

Have to and must

	I have to do something = it is necessary to do it, I am obliged to do it: You can't turn right here. You have to turn left. I have to wear glasses for reading. Robert can't come out with us this evening. He has to work late. Last week Tina broke her arm and had to go to hospital. I haven't had to go to the doctor for ages.
	We use do/does/did in questions and negative sentences (for the present and past simple): What do I have to do to get a new driving licence? (not What have I to do?) Karen doesn't have to work Saturdays. (not Karen hasn't to) Why did you have to leave early?
	You can say I'll have to, I'm going to have to and I might / I may have to: They can't fix my computer, so I'll have to buy a new one. I'm going to have to buy a new one. Tom might have to work late tomorrow. or Tom may have to work (= it's possible that he will have to)
	Must is similar to have to: It's later than I thought. I must go. or I have to go.
	You can use must or have to to give your own opinion (for example, to say what you think is necessary, or to recommend someone to do something): I haven't spoken to Sue for ages. I must phone her. / I have to phone her. (= I say this is necessary) Mark is a really nice person. You must meet him. / You have to meet him. (I recommend this)
١	We use have to (not usually must) to say what someone is obliged to do. The speaker is not giving his/her own opinion: I have to work from 8.30 to 5.30 every day. (a fact, not an opinion) Jane has to travel a lot for her work.
	But must is used in written rules and instructions: Applications for the job must be received by 18 May. (exam instruction) Answer all the questions. You must write your answers in ink.
	You cannot use must to talk about the past: We didn't have much time. We had to hurry. (not we must hurry)
	Mustn't and don't have to are completely different:
	You mustn't do something = it is necessary that you do not do it (so don't do it): You must keep this a secret. You mustn't tell anyone. (= don't tell anyone) I promised I would be on time. I mustn't be late. (= I must be on time) You don't have to do something = you don't need to do it (but you can if you want): You don't have to tell Tom what happened. I can tell him myself. I don't have to be at the meeting, but I think I'll go anyway.
	You can use have got to instead of have to. So you can say: I've got to work tomorrow. or I have to work tomorrow. When has Helen got to go? or When does Helen have to go?

Should 1

A	You should do something = it is a good thing to do or the right thing to do. You can use should to give advice or to give an opinion: You look tired. You should go to bed. The government should do more to improve education. 'Should we invite Stephanie to the party?' 'Yes, I think we should.'
	We often use should with I think / I don't think / Do you think ?: I think the government should do more to improve education. I don't think you should work so hard. 'Do you think I should apply for this job?' 'Yes, I think you should.'
	You shouldn't do something = it isn't a good thing to do: You shouldn't believe everything you read in the newspapers.
	Should is not as strong as must or have to: You should apologise. (= it would be a good thing to do) You must apologise. / You have to apologise. (= you have no alternative)
В	You can use should when something is not right or what you expect: Where's Tina? She should be here by now. (= she isn't here yet, and this is not normal) The price on this packet is wrong. It should be £2.50, not £3.50. That man on the motorbike should be wearing a helmet.
	We also use should to say that we expect something to happen: Helen has been studying hard for the exam, so she should pass . (= I expect her to pass) There are plenty of hotels in the town. It shouldn't be hard to find a place to stay. (= I don't expect it to be hard)
C	You should have done something = you didn't do it, but it would have been the right thing to do: You missed a great party last night. You should have come . Why didn't you? (= you didn't come, but it would have been good to come) I wonder why they're so late. They should have got here long ago.
	You shouldn't have done something = you did it, but it was the wrong thing to do: I'm feeling sick. I shouldn't have eaten so much. (= I ate too much) She shouldn't have been listening to our conversation. It was private. (= she was listening) Compare should (do) and should have (done): You look tired. You should go to bed now. You went to bed very late last night. You should have gone to bed earlier.
D	Ought to
	You can use ought to instead of should in the sentences on this page. We say 'ought to do' (with to): Do you think I ought to apply for this job? (= Do you think I should apply ?) Jack ought not to go to bed so late. (= Jack shouldn't go) It was a great party last night. You ought to have come . Helen has been studying hard for the exam, so she ought to pass .

Should 2

A	You can use should after:
at a second	insist recommend suggest demand propose
	 I insisted that he should apologise. Doctors recommend that everyone should eat plenty of fruit. What do you suggest we should do? Many people are demanding that something should be done about the problem.
	also It's important/vital/necessary/essential that should :
	It's essential that everyone should be here on time.
В	You can also leave out should in the sentences in section A. So you can say: It's essential that everyone be here on time. (= that everyone should be here) I insisted that he apologise. (= that he should apologise) What do you suggest we do? Many people are demanding that something be done about the problem.
	This form (be/do/apologise etc.) is called the subjunctive. It is the same as the infinitive (without to).
	You can also use normal present and past tenses:
-	 It's essential that everyone is here on time. I insisted that he apologised.
C	After suggest, you cannot use to ('to do / to buy' etc.). You can say: What do you suggest we should do? What do you suggest we do? (but not What do you suggest us to do?) Jane won the lottery.
	I suggested that she should buy a car with the money she'd won. or I suggested that she buy a car.
	or suggested that she bought a car. (but not I suggested her to buy)
	You can also use -ing after suggest (What do you suggest doing?). See Unit 53.
D	You can use should after a number of adjectives, especially:
	strange odd funny typical natural interesting surprised surprising It's strange that he should be late. He's usually on time. I was surprised that he should say such a thing.
E	You can say 'If something should happen'. For example: — We have no jobs at present, but if the situation should change, we will contact you.
	You can also begin with should (Should something happen):
	Should the situation change, we will contact you. This means the same as 'If the situation changes,'. With should, the speaker feels that the possibility is smaller.
F	You can use I should / I shouldn't to give somebody advice. For example: 'Shall I leave now?' 'No, I should wait a bit.'
	Here, I should wait = I would wait if I were you, I advise you to wait.
	More examples: 'I'm going out now. Is it cold out?' 'Yes, I should wear a coat.'
	I shouldn't stay up too late. You have to be up early tomorrow.

Had better It's time ...

A	Had better (I'd better / you'd better etc.)
	I'd better do something = it is advisable to do it. If I don't do it, there will be a problem or a danger: I have to meet Amy in ten minutes. I'd better go now or I'll be late. 'Shall I take an umbrella?' 'Yes, you'd better. It might rain.' We'd better stop for petrol soon. The tank is almost empty.
	The negative is I'd better not (= I had better not): 'The jacket looks good on you. Are you going to buy it?' You don't look very well. You'd better not go out tonight.
	Remember that:
	The form is 'had better' (usually 'I'd better / you'd better' etc. in spoken English). I'd better phone Chris, hadn't !?
	Had is normally past, but the meaning of had better is present or future, not past. I'd better go to the bank now / tomorrow.
	We say 'I'd better do ' (not to do): It might rain. We'd better take an umbrella. (not We'd better to take)
В	Had better and should
	Had better is similar to should, but not exactly the same. We use had better only for a specific situation, not for things in general. You can use should in all types of situations to give an opinion or give advice:
	Also, with had better , there is always a danger or a problem if you don't follow the advice. Should means only 'it is a good thing to do'. Compare: It's a great film. You should go and see it. (but no problem if you don't) The film starts at 8.30. You'd better go now or you'll be late.
c	It's time
	You can say It's time (for somebody) to : It's time to go home. / It's time for us to go home.
	But you can also say: It's late. It's time we went home. When we use it's time + past (we went / I did / they were etc.), the meaning is present, not past: It's time they were here. Why are they so late? (not It's time they are here)
	It's time somebody did something = they should have already done it or started it. We often use this structure to criticise or to complain: This situation can't continue. It's time you did something about it. He's very selfish. It's time he realised that he isn't the most important person in the world.
	You can also say It's about time This makes the criticism stronger: ☐ Jack is a great talker. But it's about time he did something instead of just talking.

Unit 35

	Read the situations and write sentences with had better or had better not. Use the words in brackets.
	1 You're going out for a walk with Tom. It looks as if it might rain. You say to Tom: (an umbrella) We'd better take an umbrella.

	You received your phone bill four weeks ago, but you haven't paid it yet. If you don't pay soon, you could be in trouble. You say to yourself: (pay)
	6 You want to ask your boss something, but he's very busy and you know he doesn't like to be disturbed. You say to a colleague: (disturb) I Put in had better where suitable. If had better is not suitable, use should.
	1 I have an appointment in ten minutes. I 'd better go now or I'll be late.
	2 It's a great film. You should go and see it. You'll really like it.
	3 You set your alarm. You'll never wake up on time if you don't.

	2 a It's time the government something about the problem.
	b It's time something about the problem.
	c I think it's about time you about other people instead of only thinking about yourself.

	1 You think the oil in the car needs to be changed. It hasn't been changed for a long time. It's time we changed the oil in the car.

Can/Could/Would you ... ? etc. (Requests, offers, permission and invitations)

	A STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR	And the last of th
A	Asking people to do things (requests)	Could you open the door, please?
	We use can or could to ask people to do things: Can you wait a moment, please? Could you wait a moment, please? Helen, can you do me a favour? Excuse me, could you tell me how to get to the airport.
	Note that we say Do you think you could ? (not can): Do you think you could take me to the station?
	We also use will and would to ask people to do things (but can/ Helen, will you do me a favour? Would you please be quiet? I'm trying to concentrate.
В	Asking for things
	To ask for something, we use Can I have? / Could I have? (in a shop) Can I have these postcards, please? or Can I get these postcards, please? (during a meal) Could I have the salt, please?	? or Can I get ?:
	May I have ? is also possible: May I have these postcards, please?
C	Asking to do things	Could I use your phone? Sure.
	To ask to do something, we use can, could or may: (on the phone) Hello, can I speak to Steve, please? 'Could I use your phone?' 'Sure.' Do you think I could borrow your bike? 'May I come in?' 'Yes, please do.' May is more formal than can or could. To ask to do something, you can also say Do you mind if I? or Is it all right / Is it OK if I?: 'Do you mind if I use your phone?' 'Sure. Go ahead.' 'Is it all right if I come in?' 'Yes, of course.'
D	Offering to do things To offer to do something, we use Can I ?: 'Can I get you a cup of coffee?' 'That would be nice.' 'Can I help you?' 'No, it's all right. I can manage.'
E	Offering and inviting
	To offer or to invite, we use Would you like ? (not Do you like 'Would you like a cup of coffee?' 'Yes, please.' 'Would you like to eat with us tonight?' 'I'd love to.'	e):
	I'd like is a polite way of saying what you want: (at a tourist information office) I'd like some information (in a shop) I'd like to try on this jacket, please.	on about hotels, please.

37.1	R	ead the situations and write questions beginning Can or Could
	1	You're carrying a lot of things. You can't open the door yourself. There's a man standing near the door. You say to him: Could you open the door, please?
	2	You phone Kate's office, but somebody else answers. Kate isn't there. You want to leave a message for her. You say:
	3	You're a tourist. You want to go to the station, but you don't know how to get there. You ask at your hotel:
	4	You are in a clothes shop. You see some trousers you like and you want to try them on. You say to the shop assistant:
	5	You have a car. You have to go the same way as Steve, who is on foot. You offer him a lift. You say to him:
37.2	R	ead the situation and write a question using the word in brackets.
	1	You want to borrow your friend's bike. What do you say to him? (think) Do you think I could borrow your bike?
	2	You are staying at a friend's house and you would like to make some coffee. What do you say? (all right) Is it all right if I make some coffee?
	3	You've filled in some forms in English. You want your friend to check them for you. What do you ask? (think)
	4	You want to leave work early. What do you ask your boss? (mind)
	5	The woman in the next room is playing music. It's very loud. You want her to turn it down. What do you say to her? (think)
	6	You're on a train. The window is open and you're feeling cold. You'd like to close it, but first you ask the woman next to you. (OK)
	7	You're still on the train. The woman next to you has finished reading her paper, and you'd like to have a look at it. You ask her. (think)
37.3	W	/hat would you say in these situations?
		Paul has come to see you in your flat. You offer him something to eat. You: Would you like something to eat?
		PAUL: No, thank you. I've just eaten.
	2	You need help to charge the battery in your camera. You ask Kate.
		you: I don't know how to charge the battery. ?
		KATE: Sure. It's easy. All you have to do is this.
	3	You're on a bus. You have a seat, but an elderly man is standing. You offer him your seat. You:
	4	MAN: Oh, that's very kind of you. Thank you very much. You're the passenger in a car. Your friend is driving very fast. You ask her to slow down. You: You're making me very nervous.
	5	PRIVER: Oh, I'm sorry. I didn't realise I was going so fast. You've finished your meal in a restaurant and now you want the bill. You ask the waiter: YOU:
	6	WAITER: Sure. I'll get it for you now. A friend of yours is interested in one of your books. You invite him to borrow it. FRIEND: This looks very interesting. You: Yes, it's a good book.

If I do ... and If I did ...

A

Compare these examples:

(1) LISA: Shall we go by bus or by train?

JESS: If we go by bus, it will be cheaper.

For Jess, it is possible that they will go by bus, so she says:

If we go by bus, it will be ...

If we go by bus, it will be cheaper.

LISA JESS

(2) Lisa and Jess decide to go by train. Later, Jess talks to Joe.

JOE: How are you going to travel?

JESS: We're going by train. If we went by bus, it would be cheaper, but the train is quicker.

Now Jess knows they are not going to travel by bus, so she says:

If we went by bus, it would be ... (not If we go ...)

When we imagine something that will not happen, or we don't expect that it will happen, we use if + past (if we went / if there was / if you found etc.).

But the meaning is not past:

- What would you do if you won a lot of money? (we don't really expect this to happen)
- If there was (or were) an election tomorrow, who would you vote for?

For if ... was/were, see Unit 39C.

Compare if I find and if I found:

- I think I left my watch at your house. If you find it, can you call me?
- but If you found a wallet in the street, what would you do with it?

We do not normally use would in the if-part of the sentence:

- I'd be very scared if somebody pointed a gun at me. (not if somebody would point)
- If we went by bus, it would be cheaper. (not If we would go)

But you can use if ... would when you ask somebody to do something:

 (from a formal letter) I would be grateful if you would let me know your decision as soon as possible.

In the other part of the sentence (not the if-part) we use would ('d) / wouldn't:

- What would you do if you were bitten by a snake?
- I'm not going to bed yet. I'm not tired. If I went to bed now, I wouldn't sleep.
- Would you mind if I used your phone?

Could and might are also possible:

- If I won a lot of money, I might buy a house. (= it is possible that I would buy a house)
- If it stopped raining, we could go out. (= we would be able to go out)

38.1	What do you say in these situations?
	1 Of course you don't expect to win the lottery. Which do you say? a If I win the lottery, I'll buy a big house. b If I won the lottery, I'd buy a big house. ✓ (b is correct)
	2 You're not going to sell your car because it's old and not worth much. Which do you say? a If I sell my car, I won't get much money for it.
	3 You often see Sarah. A friend of yours wants to contact her. Which do you say? a If I see Sarah, I'll tell her to call you.
	4 You don't expect that there will be a fire in the building. Which do you say? a What will you do if there is a fire in the building?
	5 You've never lost your passport. You can only imagine it. a I don't know what I'll do if I lose my passport. b I don't know what I'd do if I lost my passport.
	6 Somebody stops you and asks the way to a bank. Which do you say? a If you go right at the end of this street, you'll see a bank on your left.
	b If you went right at the end of this street, you'd see a bank on your left. 7 You're in a lift. There is an emergency button. Nobody is going to press it. Which do you say? a What will happen if somebody presses that button?
38.2	Put the verb into correct form.
	1 I'd be very scared if somebody pointed (point) a gun at me.
	2 I can't afford to buy a car. If I (buy) a car, I'd have to borrow the money.
	3 Don't lend Amy your car. If she (ask) me, I wouldn't lend her mine.
	4 If the computer factory closed down, many people (lose) their jobs.
	5 I don't think Gary and Emma will get married. I (be) amazed if they did.
	6 What would you do if you (be) in a lift and it (stop) between floors?
	7 If somebody (give) me £10,000, I (have) a very long holiday.
38.3	Write sentences beginning If
	1 We've decided not to catch the 10.30 train. (arrive too early) If we caught the 10.30 train, we'd arrive too early.
	2 Kevin is not going to do his driving test now. (fail) If he We've decided not to stay at a hotel. (cost too much) If 4 Sally isn't going to leave her job. (not / get another one)
	5 We've decided not to invite Ben to the party. (have to invite his friends too)
	6 I'm not going to tell him what happened. (not / believe me)
38.4	Use your own ideas to complete these sentences.
	1 If I won a lot of money, I'd buy a house.
	2 I'd be very angry if
	3 If you bought a car,
	4 I'd be surprised if
	5 Would you mind if

If I knew ... I wish I knew ...

В

Study this example situation:

Sarah wants to phone Paul, but she can't do this because she doesn't know his number. She says:

If I knew his number, I would phone him.

Sarah says: If I knew his number This tells us that she doesn't know his number. She is imagining the situation. The real situation is that she doesn't know his number.

	we imagine a situation like this, we use if + past (if I knew / if you were / if we didn't etc.). meaning is present, not past:
00000	There are many things I'd like to do if I had more time. (but I don't have time) If I didn't want to go to the party, I wouldn't go. (but I want to go) We wouldn't have any money if we didn't work. (but we work) If you were in my position, what would you do? It's a pity he can't drive. It would be useful if he could.
	the past in the same way after wish (I wish I knew / I wish you were etc.). We use wish to we regret something, that something is not as we would like it to be: I wish I knew Paul's phone number.

say that we regret something, that something is not as w

| I wish | knew Paul's phone number.
| (= | don't know it and | regret this)
| Do you ever wish you could fly?
| (you can't fly)
| It rains a lot here. | wish it didn't rain so much.
| It's very crowded here. | wish there weren't so many people. (there are a lot of people)
| I wish | didn't have to work tomorrow, but unfortunately | do.

If I were / if I was

After if and wish, you can use were instead of was (if I were / I wish it were etc.).

If I was / I wish it was are also possible. So you can say:

- If I were you, I wouldn't buy that coat. or If I was you, ...
- I'd go for a walk if it weren't so cold.
 I wish she were here.
 I wish she was here.

We do not normally use would in the if-part of the sentence or after wish:

- If I were rich, I would travel a lot. (not If I would be rich)
- Who would you ask if you needed help? (not if you would need)
- I wish I had something to read. (not I wish I would have)

Sometimes wish ... would is possible: I wish you would listen. See Unit 41.

Could sometimes means 'would be able to' and sometimes 'was/were able to':

- She could get a better job (she could get = she would be able to get)
- if she could speak English. (if she could speak = if she was/were able to speak)
- I wish I could help you.
 (I wish I could = I wish I was able)

39.1 P	Put the verb into the correct form.
1	1 If I knew (I / know) his number, I would phone him.
2	2 I wouldn't buy (I / not / buy) that coat if I were you.

If I had known ... I wish I had known ...

Study this example situation:
Last month Gary was in hospital for a few days. Rachel didn't know this, so she didn't go to visit him. They met a few days ago. Rachel said:
If I'd known you were in hospital, I would have gone to see you.
Rachel said: If I'd known (= If I had known) you were in hospital. This tells us that she didn't know.
We use if + had ('d) to talk about the past (if had known/been/done etc.): I didn't see you when you passed me in the street. If I'd seen you, of course would have said hello. (but didn't see you) I didn't go out last night. I would have gone out if hadn't been so tired. (but was tired) If he had been looking where he was going, he wouldn't have walked into the wall. (but he wasn't looking) The view was wonderful. If I'd had a camera with me, I would have taken some pictures. (but didn't have a camera) Compare: I'm not hungry. If was hungry, I would eat something. (now) I wasn't hungry. If had been hungry, I would have eaten something. (past)
Do not use would in the if-part of the sentence. We use would in the other part of the sentence: If I had seen you, I would have said hello. (not If I would have seen you) Note that 'd can be would or had: If I'd seen you, (I'd seen = I had seen) I'd have said hello. (I'd have said = I would have said)
We use had (done) in the same way after wish. I wish something had happened = I am sorry that it didn't happen: I wish I'd known that Gary was ill. I would have gone to see him. (but I didn't know) I feel sick. I wish I hadn't eaten so much cake. (I ate too much cake) Do you wish you'd studied science instead of languages? (you didn't study science) Do not use would have after wish: The weather was cold when we were on holiday. I wish it had been warmer. (not I wish it would have been)
Compare would (do) and would have (done): If I'd gone to the party last night, I would be tired now. (I am not tired now – present) If I'd gone to the party last night, I would have met lots of people. (I didn't meet lots of people – past)
Compare would have, could have and might have: we would have gone out. we could have gone out. (= we would have been able to go out) we might have gone out. [(= perhaps we would have gone out)

		You say (to yourself):

Wish

A	You can say 'I wish you luck / all the best / a happy birthday' etc. : I wish you all the best in the future. I saw Mark before the exam and he wished me luck.
	We say 'wish somebody something' (luck / a happy birthday etc.). But you cannot say 'I wish that something happens'. We use hope in this situation. For example: I'm sorry you're not well. I hope you feel better soon. (not I wish you feel) Compare I wish and I hope: I wish you a pleasant stay here. I hope you have a pleasant stay here. (not I wish you have)
В	We also use wish to say that we regret something, that something is not as we would like it. When we use wish in this way, we use the past (knew/lived etc.), but the meaning is present: I wish I knew what to do about the problem. (I don't know and I regret this) I wish you didn't have to go so soon. (you have to go) Do you wish you lived near the sea? (you don't live near the sea) Jack's going on a trip to Mexico soon. I wish I was going too. (I'm not going)
	To say that we regret something in the past, we use wish + had (had known / had said) etc.: I wish I'd known about the party. I would have gone if I'd known. (I didn't know) It was a stupid thing to say. I wish I hadn't said it. (I said it)
-	For more examples, see Units 39 and 40.
C	I wish I could (do something) = I regret that I cannot do it: I'm sorry I have to go. I wish I could stay longer. (but I can't) I've met that man before. I wish I could remember his name. (but I can't) I wish I could have (done something) = I regret that I could not do it: I hear the party was great. I wish I could have gone. (but I couldn't go)
D	You can say 'I wish (somebody) would (do something)'. For example:
	I wish it would stop raining. It's been raining all day. Tanya doesn't like it. She says: I wish it would stop raining. Tanya would like the rain to stop, but this will probably not happen. We use I wish would when we would like something to happen or change. Usually, the speaker doesn't expect this to happen.
	We often use I wish would to complain about a situation: The phone has been ringing for five minutes. I wish somebody would answer it. I wish you'd do (= you would do) something instead of just sitting and doing nothing.
	You can use I wish wouldn't to complain about things that people do repeatedly: I wish you wouldn't keep interrupting me. (= please don't interrupt me)
	We use I wish would to say that we want something to happen. But we do not use I wish would to say how we would like things to be. Compare: U wish Sarah would come. (= I want her to come) but I wish Sarah was (or were) here now. (not I wish Sarah would be) Dut I wish salah was (or were) here now. (not I wish salah would be)

Passive 1 (is done / was done)

A

Study this example:

This house was built in 1961.

Was built is passive.

Compare active and passive:

Somebody built this house in 1961. (active) subject object

This house was built in 1961. (passive)

14	/hen we	lice an	active	verh	WA	cav	what	the	uhiert	does-
W	men we	use an	active	veru.	we	Sav	WHAL	une s	uvieci	uues.

- My grandfather was a builder. He built this house in 1961.
 - It's a big company. It employs two hundred people.

When we use a passive verb, we say what happens to the subject:

- 'How old is this house?' 'It was built in 1961.'
- Two hundred people are employed by the company.

When we use the passive, who or what causes the action is often unknown or unimportant:

- A lot of money was stolen in the robbery. (somebody stole it, but we don't know who)
- Is this room cleaned every day? (does somebody clean it? it's not important who)

If we want to say who does or what causes the action, we use by:

- This house was built by my grandfather.
- Two hundred people are employed by the company.

The passive is be (is/was etc.) + past participle (done/cleaned/seen etc.):

(be) done

(be) cleaned

(be) damaged

(be) built

(be) seen etc.

For irregular past participles (done/seen/known etc.), see Appendix 1.

Study the active and passive forms of the present simple and past simple:

- I'm not invited to parties very often.
- How is this word pronounced?

Past simple

Somebody cleaned this room yesterday.

passive was/were + cleaned/seen etc.

This room was cleaned yesterday.

Passive 3

A	I was offered / we were given etc.
	Some verbs can have two objects. For example, give: Somebody gave the police the information. (= somebody gave the information to the police) object 1 object 2
	So it is possible to make two passive sentences: The police were given the information. or The information was given to the police.
	Other verbs which can have two objects are: ask offer pay show teach tell
	When we use these verbs in the passive, most often we begin with the person: I've been offered the job, but I don't think I'll accept it. (= they have offered me the job) You will be given plenty of time to decide. (= we will give you plenty of time) I didn't see the original document but I was shown a copy. (= somebody showed me.) Tim has an easy job – he's paid a lot of money to do very little. (= they pay him a lot)
В	I don't like being
	The passive of doing/seeing etc. is being done / being seen etc. Compare: active I don't like people telling me what to do. passive I don't like being told what to do.
	 I remember being taken to the zoo when I was a child. (= I remember somebody taking me to the zoo) Steve hates being kept waiting. (= he hates people keeping him waiting) We managed to climb over the wall without being seen. (= without anybody seeing us)
C	I was born
	We say 'I was born' (not I am born): I was born in Chicago. Where were you born? (not Where are you born?) Dut
	How many babies are born every day?
D	Get
	You can use get instead of be in the passive: There was a fight at the party, but nobody got hurt . (= nobody was hurt) I don't get invited to many parties. (= I'm not invited) I'm surprised Liz didn't get offered the job. (= Liz wasn't offered the job)
	We use get only when things happen . For example, you cannot use get in these sentences: Jessica is liked by everybody. (not gets liked – this is not a 'happening') Peter was a mystery man. Very little was known about him. (not got known)
	We use get mainly in informal spoken English. You can use be in all situations.
	We also use get in the following expressions (which are not passive in meaning): get married , get divorced get dressed (= put on your clothes) get lost (= not know where you are) get changed (= change your clothes)

It is said that ... He is said to ... He is supposed to ...

Study this example situation:

George is very old. Nobody knows exactly how old he is, but:

It is said that he is 108 years old.

or He is said to be 108 years old.

Both these sentences mean: 'People say that he is 108 years old.'

You can use these structures with a number of other verbs, especially: alleged believed considered expected known reported thought understood Compare the two structures: Cathy loves running.

- - It is said that she runs ten miles a day.
- The police are looking for a missing boy. It is believed that the boy is wearing a white sweater and blue jeans.
- The strike started three weeks ago. It is expected that the strike will end soon.
- A friend of mine has been arrested. It is alleged that he hit a policeman.
- The two houses belong to the same family. It is said that there is a secret tunnel between them.

- or She is said to run ten miles a day.
- or The boy is believed to be wearing a white sweater and blue jeans.
- The strike is expected to end soon.
- He is alleged to have hit a policeman.
- There is said to be a secret tunnel between them.

These structures are often used in news reports. For example, in a report about an accident:

- It is reported that two people were injured in the explosion.
- or Two people are reported to have been injured in the explosion.

(Be) supposed to

Sometimes (it is) supposed to ... = (it is) said to ... :

- I want to see that film. It's supposed to be good. (= it is said to be good)
- Fireworks are supposed to have been invented in China. Is it true?

But sometimes supposed to has a different meaning. We use supposed to to say what is intended, arranged or expected. Often this is different from the real situation:

- The plan is supposed to be a secret, but everybody seems to know about it. (= the plan is intended to be a secret)
- What are you doing at work? You're supposed to be on holiday. (= you arranged to be on holiday)
- Our guests were supposed to come at 7.30, but they were late.
- Jane was supposed to phone me last night, but she didn't.
- I'd better hurry. I'm supposed to be meeting Chris in ten minutes.

You're not supposed to do something = it is not allowed or advisable:

- You're not supposed to park your car here. It's private parking only.
- Jeff is much better after his illness, but he's still not supposed to do any heavy work.

Have something done

D

Study this example situation:

The roof of Lisa's house was damaged in a storm. So she called a builder, and yesterday a man came and repaired it.

Lisa had the roof repaired yesterday.

This means: Lisa arranged for somebody else to repair the roof. She didn't repair it herself.

We use have something done to say that we arrange for somebody else to do something for us. Compare:

- Lisa repaired the roof. (= she repaired it herself)
 Lisa had the roof repaired. (= she arranged for somebody else to repair it)
- 'Did you make those curtains yourself?' 'Yes, I enjoy making things.' 'Did you have those curtains made?' 'No, I made them myself.'

Be careful with word order. The past participle (repaired/cut etc.) is after the object:

have	object	past participle
Lisa had Where did you have Your hair looks nice. Have you had Our neighbour has just had We are having How often do you have I think you should have	the roof your hair it a garage the house your car that coat my picture	repaired yesterday. cut? cut? built. painted this week. serviced? cleaned. taken.

Get something done

You can also say 'get something done' instead of 'have something done':

- When are you going to get the roof repaired? (= have the roof repaired)
- I think you should get your hair cut really short.

Sometimes have something done has a different meaning. For example:

Paul and Karen had their bags stolen while they were travelling.

This does not mean that they arranged for somebody to steal their bags. 'They had their bags stolen' means only: 'Their bags were stolen'.

With this meaning, we use have something done to say that something happens to somebody or their belongings. Often what happens is not nice:

- Gary had his nose broken in a fight. (= his nose was broken)
- Have you ever had your bike stolen?

46.1 Tick (✓) the correct sentence, (a) or (b), for each picture.

- (a) Sarah is cutting her hair.
- (b) Sarah is having her hair cut.

- (a) Bill is cutting his hair.
- (b) Bill is having his hair cut.

IOHN

- (a) John is cleaning his shoes.
- (b) John is having his shoes cleaned.

- (a) Sue is taking a picture.
- (b) Sue is having her picture taken.

46.2 Put the words in the correct order.

- 1 had / a few weeks ago / the house / we / painted We had the house painted a few weeks ago.
- 2 serviced / her car / Sarah / once a year / has Sarah
- 3 twelve pounds / have / cleaned / it / my suit / cost / to
- 4 my eyes / I / two years ago / had / tested / the last time / was
- 5 had / in the kitchen / fitted / some new cupboards / we've
- 6 as soon as possible / need / translated / we / to get / this document

46.3 Write sentences in the way shown.

- 1 Lisa didn't repair the roof herself. She had it repaired.
- 2 I didn't cut my hair myself. I
- 3 We didn't clean the carpets ourselves. We
- 4 John didn't build that wall himself.
- 5 I didn't deliver the flowers myself.

46.4) Use the words in brackets to complete the sentences. Use the structure have something done.

- We're having the house painted (we / the house / paint) this week.
- 2 I lost my key. I'll have to (another key / make).

3 When was the last time

(you / your hair / cut)?

your house every day, or do you go out and buy one?

5 A: What's happening in your garden?

(we / a garage / build).

B: Oh,

(you / the washing machine / fix)?

(you / a newspaper / deliver) to

B: Not yet. There's someone coming to look at it next week.

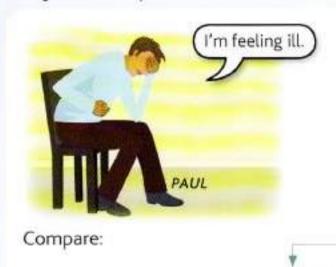

7 If you want to wear earrings, why don't you (you / your ears / pierce)?

Now use 'have something done' with its second meaning (see Section D).

- 8 Gary was in a fight last night. He had his nose broken (he / his nose / break).
- 9 Did I tell you about Jane? (she / her credit cards / steal).
- 10 Security was very strict at the airport. (we all / our bags / search).

Reported speech 1 (He said that ...)

Study this example situation:

You want to tell somebody what Paul said. There are two ways of doing this:

You can repeat Paul's words (direct speech): Paul said 'I'm feeling ill.'

Or you can use reported speech: Paul said that he was feeling ill.

direct

Paul said '

am feeling ill."

In writing we use these quotation marks to show direct speech.

reported

Paul said that he was feeling ill.

When we use reported speech, the main verb of the sentence is usually past (Paul said that ... / I told her that ... etc.). The rest of the sentence is usually past too:

- Paul said that he was feeling ill.
- I told Lisa that I didn't have any money.

You can leave out that. So you can say:

Paul said that he was feeling ill. or Paul said he was feeling ill.

In general, the present form in direct speech changes to the past form in reported speech:

am/is → was do/does → did will \rightarrow would are → were have/has → had

 $can \rightarrow could$ want/like/know/go etc. → wanted/liked/knew/went etc.

Compare direct speech and reported speech:

You met Anna. Here are some of the things she said in direct speech: Later you tell somebody what Anna said. You use reported speech:

My parents are fine.

I'm going to learn to drive.

I want to buy a car. John has a new job.

I can't come to the party on Friday.

I don't have much free time. I'm going away for a few days. I'll phone you when I get back.

ANNA

- Anna said that her parents were fine.
 - She said that she was going to learn to drive.
 - She said that she wanted to buy a car.
 - She said that John had a new job.
 - She said that she couldn't come to the party on Friday.
- She said she didn't have much free time. She said that she was going away for a few days and would phone me when she got back.

The past simple (did/saw/knew etc.) can usually stay the same in reported speech, or you can change it to the past perfect (had done / had seen / had known etc.):

- direct Paul said 'I woke up feeling ill, so I didn't go to work.'
 - reported Paul said (that) he woke up feeling ill, so he didn't go to work. Paul said (that) he had woken up feeling ill, so he hadn't gone to work.

Reported speech 2

A
A	It is not always necessary to change the verb in reported speech. If the situation is still the same, you do not need to change the verb to the past. For example:
	☐ direct Paul said 'My new job is boring.'
	reported Paul said that his new job is boring.
	(The situation is still the same. His job is still boring now.)
	☐ direct Helen said 'I want to go to Canada next year.'
	reported Helen told me that she wants to go to Canada next year.
	(Helen still wants to go to Canada next year.)
	You can also change the verb to the past:
	 Paul said that his new job was boring.
	 Helen told me that she wanted to go to Canada next year.
	But if the situation has changed or finished, you must use a past verb: Paul left the room suddenly. He said he had to go. (not has to go)
В	You need to use a past form when there is a difference hetween what was said and what is really true
	For example:
	You met Sonia a few days ago.
	She said: Joe is in hospital.
	gid)
	Later that day you meet Joe in the street. You say: Hi, Joe.
	Hi, Joe. I didn't expect to see you. Sonia said you were in nospital.
	(not 'Sonia said you are in hospital', because clearly he is not)
100	in hospital.
=	Say and tall
٧	Say and tell
	If you say who somebody is talking to, use tell:
	Sonia told me that you were in hospital. (not Sonia said me)
	○ What did you tell the police ? (not say the police) • TELL SOMEBODY
	Otherwise use say: • SAY SOMEBODY
	Sonia said that you were in hospital. (not Sonia told that) Solita said that you were in hospital. (not solita toto that)
	What did you say?
	☐ What did you say?

Auxiliary verbs (have/do/can etc.) I think so / I hope so etc.

	Tthink so / Thope so etc.
A	In each of these sentences there is an auxiliary verb and a main verb:
	I have lost my keys. She can't come to the party. The hotel was built ten years ago. Where do you live?
	In these examples have/can't/was/do are auxiliary (= helping) verbs.
	You can use an auxiliary verb when you don't want to repeat something: 'Have you locked the door?' 'Yes, I have.' (= I have locked the door) Gary wasn't working, but Laura was. (= Laura was working) Jessica could lend me the money, but she won't. (= she won't lend me the money)
	Use do/does/did for the present and past simple: 'Do you like onions?' 'Yes, I do .' (= I like onions) 'Does Simon live in London?' 'He did , but he doesn't any more.'
	You can use auxiliary verbs to deny what somebody says (= say it is not true): 'You're sitting in my place.' 'No, I'm not.' (= I'm not sitting in your place) 'You didn't lock the door before you left.' 'Yes, I did.' (= I locked the door)
В	We use have you? / isn't she? / do they? etc. to show interest in what somebody has said, or to show surprise: 'I've just seen Stephen.' 'Oh, have you? How is he?' 'Lisa isn't very well today.' 'Oh, isn't she? What's wrong with her?' 'It rained every day during our holiday.' 'Did it? What a shame!' 'James and Tanya are getting married.' 'Are they? Really?'
C	We use auxiliary verbs with so and neither: 'I'm tired.' 'So am I.' (= I'm tired too) 'I never read newspapers.' 'Neither do I.' (= I never read newspapers either) Sarah hasn't got a car and neither has Mark.
	Note the word order after so and neither (verb before subject): I passed the exam and so did Paul . (not so Paul did) Instead of neither , you can use nor . You can also use not either : (I don't know.' 'Neither do I.' or 'Nor do I.' or 'I don't either.'
D	I think so / I hope so etc.
	After some verbs we use so when we don't want to repeat something: 'Are those people Korean?' 'I think so.' (= I think they are Korean) 'Will you be at home this evening?' 'I expect so. (= I expect I'll be at home) 'Do you think Kate has been invited to the party?' 'I suppose so.' In the same way we say: I hope so, I guess so and I'm afraid so.
	The usual negative forms are: I think so / I expect so I hope so / I'm afraid so / I guess so I suppose so I don't think so / I don't expect so I hope not / I'm afraid not / I guess not I suppose so I don't suppose so or I suppose not 'Is that woman American?' 'I think so. / I don't think so.' 'Do you think it will rain?' 'I hope so. / I hope not.' (not I don't hope so)

51.1	Complete each sentence with an auxiliary verb (do/was/could etc.). Sometimes the verb must be negative (don't/wasn't etc.).

1 I wasn't tired, but my friends were
2 I like hot weather, but Ann
3 'Is Andy here?' 'He five minutes ago, but I think he's gone home now.'
4 Liz said she might call me later this evening, but I don't think she 5 'Are you and Chris coming to the party?' 'I , but Chris .'
6 I don't know whether to apply for the job or not. Do you think I ...
7 'Please don't tell anybody what I said.' 'Don't worry. I ...'
8 'You never listen to me.' 'Yes, I ...!'
9 I thought it was going to rain, but it ...
10 'Please help me.' 'I'm sorry. I if I , but I

51.2 You never agree with Sue. Answer in the way shown.

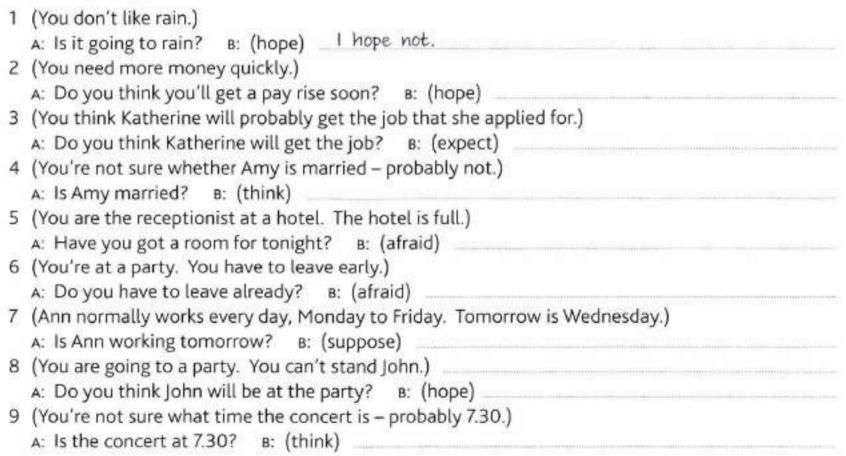

51.3 You are talking to Tina. If you're in the same position as Tina, reply with So ... or Neither ... , as in the first example. Otherwise, ask questions as in the second example.

In these conversations, you are B. Read the information in brackets and then answer with I think so, I hope not etc.

Question tags (do you? isn't it? etc.)

Study these examples:

Have you? and wasn't it? are question tags (= mini-questions that we often put on the end of a sentence in spoken English). In question tags, we use an auxiliary verb (have/was/will etc.). We use do/does/did for the present and past simple (see Unit 51):

- 'Karen plays the piano, doesn't she?' 'Well, yes, but not very well.'
- 'You didn't lock the door, did you?' 'No, I forgot.'

В Normally we use a negative question tag after a positive sentence:

> positive sentence + negative tag Kate will be here soon, won't she? There was a lot of traffic, wasn't there? shouldn't he? Joe should pass the exam,

... and a positive question tag after a negative sentence:

negative sentence + positive tag will she? Kate won't be late, do they? They don't like us, You haven't eaten yet, have you?

Notice the meaning of yes and no in answer to a negative sentence:

You're not going out today, are you? { Yes. (= Yes, I am going out) No. (= No, I am not going out)

The meaning of a question tag depends on how you say it. If your voice goes down, you are not really asking a question; you are only inviting the listener to agree with you:

- 'It's a nice day, isn't it?' 'Yes, beautiful.'
- 'Paul doesn't look well today, does he?' 'No, he looks very tired.'
- 'Lisa's very funny. She's got a great sense of humour, hasn't she?' 'Yes, she has.'

But if the voice goes up, it is a real question:

'You haven't seen Lisa today, have you?' 'No, I haven't.' (= Have you by chance seen Lisa today?)

You can use a negative sentence + positive tag to ask for things or information, or to ask somebody to do something. The voice goes up at the end of the tag in sentences like these:

- 'You haven't got a pen, have you?' 'Yes, here you are.'
- 'You couldn't do me a favour, could you?' 'It depends what it is.'
- 'You don't know where Karen is, do you?' 'Sorry, I have no idea.'

After Let's ... , the question tag is shall we:

Let's go for a walk, shall we? (the voice goes up)

After Don't ... , the question tag is will you:

Don't be late, will you? (the voice goes down)

After I'm ..., the negative question tag is aren't I (= am I not):

I'm right, aren't I?' 'Yes, you are.'

52.1 Put a question tag on the end of these sentences.

1	Kate won't be late,	will she
2	You're tired,	aren't you	?
3	You travel a lot,		?
4	You weren't listening,		?

15	Ann has lived here a long time,		?
16	I shouldn't have lost my temper,		?
17	He'd never met her before,		?
18	Don't drop that vase,		?

No, she's never late. Yes, a little. Yes, I love travelling. Yes, I was! No, they've never met. Yes, he's in Australia. Yes, two or three times. Yes, but not fluently. No, of course they won't. Yes, more than I expected. Yes, that would be great. No, not really. Yes, you are sometimes. No, of course not. Yes, 20 years. No, but that's all right. No, that was the first time. Don't worry. I won't.

52.2 Read the situation and write a sentence with a question tag. In each situation you are asking your friend to agree with you.

- 1 You look out of the window. The sky is blue and the sun is shining. What do you say to your friend? (beautiful day) It's a beautiful day, isn't it?
- 2 You're with a friend outside a restaurant. You're looking at the prices, which are very high. What do you say? (expensive) It

- 7 You and a friend are walking over a small wooden bridge. The bridge is very old and some parts are broken. What do you say? (not / very safe) This bridge

- 1 You need a pen. Perhaps Jane has got one. Ask her. Jane, you haven't got a pen, have you?
- 2 You have to move a heavy table. You want Joe to give you a hand with it. Ask him. Joe, you
- 3 You're looking for Sarah. Perhaps Kate knows where she is. Ask her. Kate, you
- 4 You need a bicycle pump. Perhaps Helen has got one. Ask her.
- 5 Ann has a car and you need a lift to the station. Perhaps she'll take you. Ask her. Ann.
- 6 You're looking for your keys. Perhaps Robert has seen them. Ask him. Robert.

Verb + -ing or to ... 1 (remember/regret etc.)

A

Some verbs are followed by -ing and some are followed by to Verbs usually followed by -ing:

admit	fancy	postpone
avoid	finish	risk
consider	imagine	stop deny	keep (on)	suggest
enjoy	mind	1 100-1 0 10 22-10 100

For examples, see Unit 53.

Verbs usually followed by to ...:

afford	fail	offer
agree	forget	plan
arrange	hope	promise decide	learn	refuse deserve	manage	threaten

For examples, see Unit 54.

B Some verbs can be followed by -ing or to ... with a difference of meaning:

remember

I remember doing something = I did it and now I remember this.

You remember doing something after you have done it.

- I know I locked the door. I clearly remember locking it.
 - (= I locked it, and now I remember this)
- He could remember driving along the road just before the accident, but he couldn't remember the accident itself.

I remembered to do something = I remembered that I had to do it, so I did it. You remember to do something before you do it.

- I remembered to lock the door, but I forgot to shut the windows.
 (= I remembered that I had to lock it, and so I locked it)
- I must remember to pay the electricity bill. (= I must not forget to pay it) regret

I regret doing something = I did it and now I'm sorry about it:

- I now regret saying what I said. I shouldn't have said it.
- Do you regret not going to college?

I regret to say / to tell you / to inform you = I'm sorry that I have to say (etc.):

 (from a formal letter) We regret to inform you that your application has been unsuccessful.

go on

Go on doing something = continue with the same thing:

- The president paused for a moment and then went on talking.
- We need to change. We can't go on living like this.

Go on to do something = do or say something new:

 After discussing the economy, the president then went on to talk about foreign policy.

The following verbs can be followed by -ing or to ... with no difference of meaning:

begin start continue intend bother

So you can say:

- It started raining. or It started to rain.
- Andy intends buying a house. or Andy intends to buy ...
- On't bother locking the door. or Don't bother to lock ...

But normally we do not use -ing after -ing:

It's starting to rain. (not It's starting raining)

Verb + -ing or to ... 3 (like / would like etc.)

A	Like / love / hate
A land model of the	When you talk about repeated actions, you can use -ing or to after these verbs. So you can say: Do you like getting up early? or Do you like to get up early? Stephanie hates flying. or Stephanie hates to fly. I love meeting people. or I love to meet people. I don't like being kept waiting. or like to be kept waiting. I don't like friends calling me at work. or friends to call me at work.
	 (1) We use -ing (not to) when we talk about a situation that already exists (or existed). For example: Paul lives in Berlin now. He likes living there. (He likes living in Berlin = He lives there and he likes it) Do you like being a student? (You are a student – do you like it?) The office I worked in was horrible. I hated working there. (I worked there and I hated it)
	 (2) There is sometimes a difference between I like to do and I like doing: I like doing something = I do it and I enjoy it: I like cleaning the kitchen. (= I enjoy it.)
	I like to do something = I think it is a good thing to do, but I don't necessarily enjoy it: It's not my favourite job, but I like to clean the kitchen as often as possible. Note that enjoy and mind are always followed by -ing (not to): I enjoy cleaning the kitchen. (not I enjoy to clean) I don't mind cleaning the kitchen. (not I don't mind to clean)
В	Would like / would love etc. are usually followed by to: 'd like (= would like) to go away for a few days. Would you like to come to dinner on Friday? I wouldn't like to go on holiday alone. I'd love to meet your family. Would you prefer to have dinner now or later?
	Compare I like and I would like (I'd like): I like playing tennis. / I like to play tennis. (= I like it in general) I'd like to play tennis today. (= I want to play today) Would mind is always followed by -ing (not to): Would you mind closing the door, please?
C	I would like to have done something = I regret now that I didn't or couldn't do it: It's a shame we didn't see Anna when we were in London. I would like to have seen her again. We'd like to have gone away, but we were too busy at home. You can use the same structure after would love / would hate / would prefer: Poor David! I would hate to have been in his position.
	I'd love to have gone to the party, but it was impossible.

Unit 60

Preposition (in/for/about etc.) + -ing

A

If a preposition (in/for/about etc.) is followed by a verb, the verb ends in -ing:

Are you interested I'm not good	preposition in at	verb (-ing) working learning	for us? languages.
Sue must be fed up What are the advantages Thanks very much	with of for	studying. having inviting	a car? me to your party.
How Why don't you go out Amy went to work	about instead of in spite of	meeting sitting feeling	for lunch tomorrow? at home all the time? ill.

You can also say 'instead of somebody doing something', 'fed up with people doing something' etc. :

I'm fed up with people telling me what to do.

В

Note the use of the following prepositions + -ing:

befor	e -ing and after -ing:
0	Before going out, I phoned Sarah. (not Before to go out)
0	What did you do after finishing school?
You ca	an also say 'Before I went out' and ' after you finished school'.
by -in	g (to say how something happens):
0	The burglars got into the house by breaking a window and climbing in.
0	You can improve your English by reading more.
0	She made herself ill by not eating properly.
0	Many accidents are caused by people driving too fast.
witho	out -ing:
0	We ran ten kilometres without stopping.
0	It was a stupid thing to say. I said it without thinking.
0	She needs to work without people disturbing her. (or without being disturbed.)
0	I have enough problems of my own without having to worry about yours.

To is often part of the infinitive (to do / to see etc.):

We decided to travel by train.

Would you like to meet for lunch tomorrow?

But to is also a preposition (like in/for/about/with etc.). For example:

We went from Paris to Geneva.

To -ing (look forward to doing something etc.)

I prefer tea to coffee.

Are you looking forward to the weekend?

If a preposition is followed by a verb, the verb ends in -ing:

I'm fed up with travelling by train.

How about going away this weekend?

So, when to is a preposition and it is followed by a verb, you must say to -ing:

I prefer driving to travelling by train. (not to travel)

Are you looking forward to going on holiday? (not looking forward to go)

Be/get used to something (I'm used to ...)

Study this example situation:

I'm used to something = it is not new or strange for me:

Lisa is American, but she lives in Britain. When she first drove a car in Britain, she found it very difficult because she had to drive on the left, not on the right. Driving on the left was strange and difficult for her because:

She wasn't used to it.

She wasn't used to driving on the left.

But after a lot of practice, driving on the left became less strange. So:

She got used to driving on the left.

Now it's no problem for Lisa: She is used to driving on the left.

Paul lives alone. He doesn't mind this because he has lived alone for 15 years. It is not strange for him. He is used to it. He is used to living alone. I bought some new shoes. They felt a bit strange at first because I wasn't used to them. Our new apartment is on a very busy street. I expect we'll get used to the noise, but at the moment it's very disturbing. Helen has a new job. She has to get up much earlier now than before – at 6.30. She finds this difficult because she isn't used to getting up so early. Katherine's husband is often away from home. She doesn't mind this. She is used to him being away. After be/get used you cannot use the infinitive (to do / to drive etc.). We say: She is used to driving on the left. (not She is used to drive) When we say 'I am used to something', to is a preposition, not a part of the infinitive. So we say: We're not used to the noise. / We're not used to it. Paul is used to living alone. (not Paul is used to live) Lisa had to get used to driving on the left. (not get used to drive) D Do not confuse I am used to doing and I used to do: I am used to (doing) something = it isn't strange or new for me: I am used to the weather in this country. I am used to driving on the left because I've lived in Britain a long time. I used to do something = I did it regularly in the past but no longer do it. You can use this only for the past, not for the present. (See Unit 18.)

The structure is 'I used to do' (not I am used to do):

- I used to drive to work every day, but these days I usually go by bike.
- We used to live just outside the town, but now we live near the centre.

1	Jack has to drive two hours to his work every morning. Many years ago, when he first had to do this, it was difficult for him. But now it's OK.
	When Jack started working in this job, he wasn't driving two hours to work every morning, but after some time he two hours to work every morning, but after some time he Now it's no problem for him. He two hours every morning
2	Julia is a nurse. A year ago she started working nights. At first she found it hard and didn't like it.
-	She nights and it took her a few months to it. Now, after a year, it's OK for her.
	She nights.
W	/hat do you say in these situations? Use I'm (not) used to
1	You live alone. You don't mind this. You have always lived alone.
	FRIEND: Do you get lonely sometimes?
	YOU: No, I'm used to living alone.
2	You sleep on the floor. You don't mind this. You have always slept on the floor.
	FRIEND: Wouldn't you prefer to sleep in a bed?
	You: No, I
3	You have to work long hours in your job. This is not a problem for you. You have always worked long hours.
	FRIEND: You have to work very long hours in your job, don't you?
	you: Yes, but I don't mind that. I
4	You usually go to bed early. Last night you went to bed very late (for you) and as a result you a very tired this morning.
	FRIEND: You look tired this morning.
	You: Yes,

4	Some people you know from Britain are going to live in your country. What will they have to ge used to?

Verb + preposition + -ing (succeed in -ing / accuse somebody of -ing etc.)

A

Many verbs have the structure verb + preposition (in/for/about etc.) + object. For example:

verb + preposition + object

We talked	about	the problem.
You must apologise	for	what you said.

If the object is another verb, it ends in -ing:

	100
We talked	about	going to South America.
You must apologise	for	not telling the truth.

Some more verbs with this structure:

approve (of) decide (against) dream (of) feel (like) insist (on) look forward (to) succeed (in) think (of/about)

He doesn't approve	of	swearing.
We have decided	against	moving to London.

Do you feel	like	going out tonight?
They insisted	on	paying for the meal.
I'm looking forward	to	meeting her.

You can also say 'approve of somebody doing something', 'look forward to somebody doing something' etc:

- I don't approve of people killing animals for fun.
- We are all looking forward to Andy coming home.

В

The following verbs can have the structure verb + object + preposition + -ing:

accuse (of) congratulate (on) excuse (for) prevent (from) stop (from) suspect (of) thank (for)

verb +	+ object	preposition	+ -ing (object)

What prevented The rain didn't stop Nobody suspected I forgot to thank	you us the general them	from from of for	coming to see us? enjoying our holiday. being a spy. helping me.

You can say 'stop somebody doing' or 'stop somebody from doing':

You can't stop me doing what I want. or You can't stop me from doing what I want.

The following examples are with not -ing:

- They accused us of not telling the truth.
- Excuse me for not replying to your email until now.

Some of these verbs are often used in the passive. For example:

- We were accused of telling lies.
- The general was suspected of being a spy.

A	Study these examples: I phoned the restaurant to reserve a table. What do you need to make bread? We shouted to warn everybody of the danger. This letter is to confirm the decisions we made at our meeting last week. The president has a team of bodyguards to protect him. In these examples to (to reserve / to make etc.) tells us the purpose of something: why somebody does something, has something, needs something etc., or why something exists.
В	We say 'a place to park', 'something to eat', 'work to do' etc.: It's difficult to find a place to park in the centre. (= a place where you can park) Would you like something to eat? (= something that you can eat) Do you have much work to do? (= work that you must do) I get lonely if there's nobody to talk to. I need something to open this bottle with. Also money/time/chance/opportunity/energy/courage (etc.) to do something: They gave us money to buy food. Do you have much opportunity to practise your English? I need a few days to think about your proposal.
C	Compare for and to :
	for + noun to + verb □ We stopped for petrol. □ We stopped to get petrol. □ I had to run for the bus. □ I had to run to catch the bus.
	You can say ' for somebody to do something': There weren't any chairs for us to sit on , so we sat on the floor.
	You can use for -ing or to to talk about the general purpose of something, or what it is generally used for: I use this brush for washing the dishes. or to wash the dishes.
	But we do not use for - ing to say why somebody does something: I went into the kitchen to wash the dishes. (not for washing)
5	You can use What for? to ask about purpose: What is this switch for? What did you do that for?
D	So that
	We use so that (not to) especially when the purpose is negative (so that won't/wouldn't): I hurried so that I wouldn't be late. (= because I didn't want to be late) Eat something now so that you won't (or don't) get hungry later.
	with can and could (so that can/could): She's learning English so that she can study in Canada. We moved to London so that we could see our friends more often.
	You can leave out that . So you can say: I hurried so that I wouldn't be late. or I hurried so I wouldn't be late.

See somebody do and see somebody doing

A	Study	this examp	le situation
---	-------	------------	--------------

Tom got into his car and drove away. You saw this. You can say:

I saw Tom get into his car and drive away.

In this structure we use get/drive/do etc. (not to get / to drive / to do).

Somebody did something

I saw this

I saw somebody do something

But after a passive ('he was seen' etc.), we use to:

He was seen to get in the car.

Study this example situation:

Yesterday you saw Kate. She was waiting for a bus. You can say:

I saw Kate waiting for a bus.

In this structure we use -ing (waiting/doing etc.):

Somebody was doing something

I saw this

I saw somebody doing something

KATE

Study the difference in meaning between the two structures:

I saw him do something = he did something (past simple) and I saw this. I saw the complete action from beginning to end:

- He fell off the wall. I saw this. → I saw him fall off the wall.
- The accident happened. Did you see it? → Did you see the accident happen?

I saw him doing something = he was doing something (past continuous) and I saw this. I saw him when he was in the middle of doing it. This does not mean that I saw the complete action:

He was walking along the street.

I saw this when I drove past in my car.

I saw him walking along the street.

Sometimes the difference is not important and you can use either form:

- I've never seen her dance. or I've never seen her dancing.
- We use these structures with see and hear, and a number of other verbs:
 - ☐ I didn't hear you come in. (you came in I didn't hear this)
 - Lisa suddenly felt somebody touch her on the shoulder.
 - Did you notice anyone go out?
 - I could hear it raining. (it was raining I could hear it)
 - A man was seen running away a short time after the break-in.
 - Listen to the birds singing!
 - Can you smell something burning?
 - We looked everywhere for Paul, and finally we found him sitting under a tree in the garden and eating an apple.

-ing clauses (Feeling tired, I went to bed early.)

A	Study these situations:
	Joe was playing football. He hurt his knee. You can say: Joe hurt his knee playing football.
ĺ	You were feeling tired. So you went to bed early. You can say: Feeling tired, I went to bed early.
ı	'Playing football' and 'feeling tired' are -ing clauses. If the -ing clause is at the beginning of the sentence (as in the second example), we write a comma (,) after it.
В	When two things happen at the same time, you can use an -ing clause: Kate is in the kitchen making coffee. (= she is in the kitchen and she is making coffee) A man ran out of the house shouting. (= he ran out of the house and he was shouting) Do something! Don't just stand there doing nothing!
	We also use -ing when one action happens during another action. We use -ing for the longer action: Joe hurt his knee playing football. (= while he was playing) Did you cut yourself shaving? (= while you were shaving)
	You can also use -ing after while or when: Joe hurt his knee while playing football. Be careful when crossing the road. (= when you are crossing)
C	When one action happens before another action, we use having (done) for the first action: Having found a hotel, we looked for somewhere to have dinner. Having finished her work, she went home. You can also say after -ing:
	 □ After finishing her work, she went home. If one short action follows another short action, you can use the simple -ing form (doing instead of having done) for the first action: □ Taking a key out of his pocket, he opened the door.
J	These structures are used more in written English than in spoken English.
D	You can use an -ing clause to explain something, or to say why somebody does something.
ALL ALL MANAGEMENT	The -ing clause usually comes at the beginning of the sentence: Feeling tired, I went to bed early. (= because I felt tired) Being unemployed, he doesn't have much money. (= because he is unemployed) Not having a car, she finds it difficult to get around. (= because she doesn't have a car)
i	Use having (done) for something that happened before something else: Having already seen the film twice, I didn't want to see it again. (= because I had already seen it twice)
	These structures are used more in written English than in spoken English.

Countable and uncountable 1

B

A noun can be countable or uncountable.

Countable	Uncountable
 I eat a banana every day. I like bananas. 	 I eat rice every day. I like rice.
Banana is a countable noun.	Rice is an uncountable noun.
A countable noun can be singular (banana) or plural (bananas).	An uncountable noun has only one form (rice)
We can use numbers with countable nouns. So we can say 'one banana', 'two bananas' etc.	We cannot use numbers with uncountable nouns. We cannot say 'one rice', 'two rices' etc.
Examples of nouns usually countable: Kate was singing a song. There's a nice beach near here. Do you have a ten-pound note? It wasn't your fault. It was an accident. There are no batteries in the radio. We don't have enough cups.	Examples of nouns usually uncountable: Kate was listening to (some) music. There's sand in my shoes. Do you have any money? 4	A/an and the
A	Study this example:
	Joe says 'a sandwich', 'an apple' because this is the first time he talks about them. The sandwich wasn't very good, but the apple was nice. Joe now says 'the sandwich', 'the apple' because Karen knows which sandwich and which apple he means – the sandwich and the apple that he had for lunch.
	Compare a and the in these examples: A man and a woman were sitting opposite me. The man was American, but I think the woman was British. When we were on holiday, we stayed at a hotel. Sometimes we ate at the hotel and sometimes we went to a restaurant.
В	We use the when we are thinking of a specific thing. Compare a/an and the :
	 Tim sat down on a chair. (perhaps one of many chairs in the room) Tim sat down on the chair nearest the door. (a specific chair)
	Paula is looking for a job. (not a specific job) Did Paula get the job she applied for? (a specific job)
	 Do you have a car? (not a specific car) I cleaned the car yesterday. (= my car)
C	We use the when it is clear in the situation which thing or person we mean. For example, in a room we talk about the light / the floor / the ceiling / the door / the carpet etc.: Can you turn off the light , please? (= the light in this room) I took a taxi to the station . (= the station in that town) (in a shop) I'd like to speak to the manager , please. (= the manager of this shop)
	In the same way, we say (go to) the bank / the post office: I have to go to the bank and then I'm going to the post office. (The speaker is usually thinking of a specific bank or post office.)
	We also say (go to) the doctor / the dentist: Clare isn't very well. She's gone to the doctor. (= her usual doctor) I don't like going to the dentist.
	Compare the and a : I have to go to the bank today. Is there a bank near here? I don't like going to the dentist . My sister is a dentist .
D	We say 'once a week / three times a day / £1.50 a kilo' etc. :

'How much are those potatoes?' '£1.50 a kilo.' Helen works eight hours a day, six days a week.

How often do you go to the cinema?' 'About once a month.'

A	We use the when there is only one of something: Have you ever crossed the equator? (there is only one equator) What's the longest river in Europe? Our apartment is on the tenth floor. Buenos Aires is the capital of Argentina. I'm going away at the end of this month.
	We use the before same (the same): Your sweater is the same colour as mine. (not is same colour) 'Are these keys the same ?' 'No, they're different.'
В	We say:
	the sun the moon the earth the world the universe the sky the sea the ground the environment the internet
	 I love to look at the stars in the sky. (not in sky) The internet has changed the way we live. We need to do more to protect the environment. (= the natural world around us) The earth goes round the sun, and the moon goes round the earth.
3	We also use 'Earth' (without the) when we think of it as a planet in space (like Mars, Jupiter etc.). Which planet is nearest Earth?
	We say space (without the) when we mean 'space in the universe'. Compare There are millions of stars in space . (not in the space) I tried to park my car, but the space was too small.
	We use a/an to say what kind of thing something is (see Unit 71B). Compare the and a: The sun is a star. (= one of many stars) The hotel we stayed at was a very nice hotel.
C	We say: (go to) the cinema, the theatre. I go to the cinema a lot, but I haven't been to the theatre for ages.
	When we say the cinema / the theatre, we do not necessarily mean a specific cinema or theatre.
	We usually say the radio , but television/TV (without the). Compare: I listen to the radio a lot. but I watch television a lot. We heard it on the radio . but We watched it on TV .
	The television / the TV = the television set: Can you turn off the television, please?
D	We do not normally use the with breakfast/lunch/dinner : What did you have for breakfast ? We had lunch in a very nice restaurant.
	But we use a/an if we say 'a big lunch', 'a wonderful dinner', 'an early breakfast' etc. : We had a very nice lunch. (not We had very nice lunch)
E	We do not use the before noun + number. For example, we say: Our train leaves from Platform 5 . (not the Platform 5) (in a shop) Do you have these shoes in size 43 ? (not the size 43)
	In the same way, we say: Room 126 (in a hotel), page 29 (of a book), question 3 (in an exam), Gate 10 (at an airport) etc.

Compare school and the school:

Ellie is ten years old. Every day she goes to school. She's at school now. School starts at 9 and finishes at 3.

We say a child goes to school or is at school (as a student). We are not thinking of a specific school. We are thinking of school as a general idea – children learning in a classroom.

Today Ellie's mother wants to speak to her daughter's teacher. So she has gone to the school to see her. She's at the school now.

Ellie's mother is not a student. She is not 'at school', she doesn't 'go to school'. If she wants to see Ellie's teacher, she goes to the school (=Ellie's school, a specific building).

0	Ken's brother is in prison for robbery. (He is a prisoner. We are not thinking of a specific prison.)	0	Ken went to the prison to visit his brother. (He went as a visitor, not as a prisoner
0	Joe had an accident last week. He was taken to hospital. He's still in hospital now. (as a patient)	0	Jane has gone to the hospital to visit Joe. She's at the hospital now. (as a visitor, not as a patient)

Unit 76

The 4 (the giraffe / the telephone / the piano etc.; the + adjective)

J	the + adjective)
	Study these sentences: The giraffe is the tallest of all animals. The bicycle is an excellent means of transport. When was the telephone invented? The dollar is the currency of the United States.
	In these examples, the does not mean one specific thing. The giraffe = a specific type of animal, not a specific giraffe. We use the in this way to talk about a type of animal, machine etc.
	In the same way we use the for musical instruments: Can you play the guitar? The piano is my favourite instrument.
	Compare a and the : I'd like to have a piano . but I can't play the piano . We saw a giraffe at the zoo. but The giraffe is my favourite animal. Note that we use man (= human beings in general / the human race) without the :
J	What do you know about the origins of man? (not the man)
	The + adjective
ĺ	We use the + adjective (without a noun) to talk about groups of people. For example:
	the young the rich the sick the injured the old the poor the disabled the dead the elderly the homeless the unemployed
	The young = young people, the rich = rich people etc. : Do you think the rich should pay higher taxes? We need to do more to help the homeless.
	The young / the rich / the injured etc. are plural in meaning. For example, you cannot say 'a young' or 'the injured' for one person. You must say 'a young person', 'the injured woman' etc.
J	Note that we say 'the poor ' (not the poors), 'the young ' (not the youngs) etc.
	The + nationality
	You can use the + nationality adjectives that end in -ch or -sh (the French / the English / the Spanish etc.). The meaning is 'the people of that country': The French are famous for their food. (= the people of France)
	The French / the English etc. are plural in meaning. We do not say 'a French / an English'. You have to say a Frenchman / an Englishwoman etc.
	We also use the + nationality words ending in -ese (the Chinese / the Sudanese / the Japanese etc.): The Chinese invented printing. But these words can also be singular (a Chinese, a Japanese etc.). Note also: a Swiss (singular) and the Swiss (= the people of Switzerland)
	With other nationalities, the plural noun ends in -s. For example:
	an Italian $ ightarrow$ Italians a Mexican $ ightarrow$ Mexicans a Turk $ ightarrow$ Turks
	With these words (Italians etc.), we do not normally use the to talk about the people in general (see Unit 75).

Singular and plural

Sometimes we use a plural noun for one thing that has two parts. For example: trousers (two legs) glasses binoculars. pyjamas scissors also jeans/tights/shorts/pants (top and bottom) These words are plural, so they take a plural verb: My trousers are too long. (not my trousers is) You can also use a pair of + these words: Those are nice jeans. That's a nice pair of jeans. (not a nice jeans) or I need some new glasses. or I need a new pair of glasses. Some nouns end in -ics, but are not usually plural. For example: athletics economics electronics gymnastics maths (= mathematics) physics politics Gymnastics is my favourite sport. (not Gymnastics are) News is not plural (see Unit 70B): What time is the news on TV? (not are the news) Some words ending in -s can be singular or plural. For example: means a means of transport many means of transport series a television series two television series a species of bird 200 species of bird species Some singular nouns are often used with a plural verb. For example: audience committee company family firm government staff team These nouns are all groups of people. We often think of them as a number of people (= they), not as one thing (= it). So we often use a plural verb: The government (= they) have decided to increase taxes. The staff at the company (= they) are not happy with their working conditions. In the same way, we often use a plural verb after the name of a sports team or a company: Italy are playing Brazil next Sunday (in a football match). Shell have increased the price of petrol. A singular verb (The government wants ... / Shell has ... etc.) is also possible. We use a plural verb with police: The police are investigating the crime, but haven't arrested anyone yet. (not The police is ... hasn't) Note that we say a police officer / a policeman / a policewoman (not a police). We do not often use the plural of person ('persons'). We normally use people (a plural word): D

- He's a nice person. but They are nice people. (not nice persons)
 - Many people don't have enough to eat. (not Many people doesn't)
- We think of a sum of money, a period of time, a distance etc. as one thing. So we use a singular verb:
 - Fifty thousand pounds (= it) was stolen in the robbery. (not were stolen)
 - Three years (= it) is a long time to be without a job. (not Three years are)
 - Two miles isn't very far to walk.

Noun + noun (a tennis ball / a headache)

You can use two nouns together (noun + noun) to mean one thing/person/idea etc. For example: a tennis ball income tax the city centre The first noun is like an adjective. It tells us what kind of thing/person/idea etc. For example: a tennis ball = a ball used to play tennis a bus driver = the driver of a bus a road accident = an accident that happens on the road income tax = tax that you pay on your income the city centre = the centre of the city a Paris hotel = a hotel in Paris my life story = the story of my life So you can say: a television camera a television studio a television producer a television programme (these are all different things or people to do with television) language problems marriage problems health problems work problems (these are all different kinds of problems) Compare: garden vegetables (= vegetables that are grown in a garden) a vegetable garden (= a garden where vegetables are grown) Sometimes the first word ends in -ing. Usually these are things we use for doing something: a frying pan (= a pan for frying) a washing machine a swimming pool Sometimes there are more than two nouns together: I waited at the hotel reception desk. We watched the World Swimming Championships on television. If you want to play table tennis (= a game), you need a table tennis table (= a table). When two nouns are together like this, sometimes we write them as one word and sometimes as two В separate words. For example: a headache toothpaste a weekend a road sign a car park There are no clear rules for this. If you are not sure, write two words. Note the difference between: C a sugar bowl (maybe empty) and a bowl of sugar (= a bowl with sugar in it) a shopping bag (maybe empty) and a bag of shopping (= a bag full of shopping) D When we use noun + noun, the first noun is like an adjective. It is normally singular, but the meaning is often plural. For example: a bookshop is a shop where you can buy books, an apple tree is a tree that has apples. In the same way we say: a three-hour journey (= a journey that takes three hours) a ten-pound note (not pounds) a four-week course (not weeks) a six-mile walk (not miles) two 14-year-old girls (not years) Compare: It was a four-week course. Unit 83

A friend of mine my own house on my own / by myself

A	A friend of mine / a friend of yours etc.
	We say '(a friend) of mine/yours/his/hers/ours/theirs'. A friend of mine = one of my friends: I'm going to a wedding on Saturday. A friend of mine is getting married. (not a friend of me) We went on holiday with some friends of ours. (not some friends of us) Mike had an argument with a neighbour of his. It was a good idea of yours to go to the cinema.
	In the same way we say '(a friend) of my sister's / (a friend) of Tom's' etc. : That woman over there is a friend of my sister's. (= one of my sister's friends) It was a good idea of Tom's to go to the cinema.
В	My own / your own etc.
	We use my/your/his/her/its/our/their before own: my own house your own car her own room (not an own house, an own car etc.)
	My own / your own etc. = something that is only mine/yours, not shared or borrowed: I don't want to share a room with anybody. I want my own room. Vicky and Gary would like to have their own house. It's a shame that the apartment hasn't got its own parking space. It's my own fault that I've got no money. I buy too many things I don't need. Why do you want to borrow my car? Why don't you use your own? (= your own car)
	You can also say 'a room of my own ', 'a house of your own' , 'problems of his own ' etc. : I'd like to have a room of my own . He won't be able to help you with your problems. He has too many problems of his own .
C	We also use own to say that we do something ourselves instead of somebody else doing it for us. For example: Brian usually cuts his own hair . (= he cuts it himself; he doesn't go to a barber) I'd like to have a garden so that I could grow my own vegetables . (= grow them myself instead of buying them from shops)
D	On my own / by myself On my own and by myself both mean 'alone'. We say:
	on { my / your his / her / its own our / their } own = by { myself / yourself (singular) himself / herself / itself ourselves / yourselves (plural) / themselves
	 I like living on my own / by myself. 'Did you go on holiday on your own / by yourself?' 'No, with a friend.' Jack was sitting on his own / by himself in a corner of the cafe. Learner drivers are not allowed to drive on their own / by themselves.

No/none/any Nothing/nobody etc.

A	No and none
	We use no + noun. No = not a or not any: We had to walk home because there was no bus. (= there wasn't a bus) Sue will have no trouble finding a job. (= Sue won't have any trouble) There were no shops open. (= There weren't any shops open.) You can use no + noun at the beginning of a sentence: No reason was given for the change of plan.
	We use none without a noun: 'How much money do you have?' 'None.' (= no money) All the tickets have been sold. There are none left. (= no tickets left) Or we use none of : This money is all yours. None of it is mine. Compare none and any :
	 'How much luggage do you have?' 'None.' / 'I don't have any.' After none of + plural (none of the students, none of them etc.) the verb can be singular or plural. A plural verb is more usual: None of the shops were (or was) open.
В	Nothing nobody/no-one nowhere You can use these words at the beginning of a sentence or alone (as answers to questions): 'What's going to happen?' 'Nobody (or No-one) knows.' 'What happened?' 'Nothing.'
	'Where are you going?' 'Nowhere. I'm staying here.' You can also use these words after a verb, especially after be and have: The house is empty. There's nobody living there. We had nothing to eat.
	Nothing/nobody etc. = not + anything/anybody etc. : I said nothing. = I didn't say anything. Jane told nobody about her plans. = Jane didn't tell anybody about her plans. They have nowhere to live. = They don't have anywhere to live.
	With nothing/nobody etc., do not use a negative verb (isn't , didn't etc.): I said nothing. (not didn't say nothing)
C	After nobody/no-one you can use they/them/their (see also Unit 85E): Nobody is perfect, are they? (= is he or she perfect) No-one did what I asked them to do. (= him or her) Nobody in the class did their homework. (= his or her homework)
D	Sometimes any/anything/anybody etc. means 'it doesn't matter which/what/who' (see Unit 85D). Compare no- and any-: There was no bus, so we walked home. You can take any bus. They all go to the centre. (= it doesn't matter which) 'What do you want to eat?' 'Nothing. I'm not hungry.' I'm so hungry. I could eat anything. (= it doesn't matter what) The exam was extremely difficult. Nobody passed. (= everybody failed) The exam was very easy. Anybody could have passed. (= it doesn't matter who)

All, every and whole

A	All and everybody/everyone
	We do not normally use all to mean everybody/everyone: Everybody had a great time at the party. (not All enjoyed) But we say all of us / all of you / all of them: All of us had a great time at the party. (not Everybody of us)
В	All and everything
	Sometimes you can use all or everything : I'll do all I can to help. or I'll do everything I can to help.
	You can say 'all I can' / 'all you need' etc., but we do not normally use all alone: He thinks he knows everything. (not he knows all) Our holiday was a disaster. Everything went wrong. (not All went wrong) But you can say all about: He knows all about computers.
	We also use all (not everything) to mean 'the only thing(s)': All I've eaten today is a sandwich. (= the only thing I've eaten today)
C	Every / everybody / everyone / everything are singular words, so we use a singular verb: Every seat in the theatre was taken. Everybody has arrived. (not have arrived) But we use they/them/their after everybody/everyone: Everybody said they enjoyed themselves. (= everybody enjoyed himself or herself)
D	Whole and all
	Whole = complete, entire. Most often we use whole with singular nouns: Did you read the whole book? (= all the book, not just a part of it) Emily has lived her whole life in the same town. I was so hungry, I ate a whole packet of biscuits. (= a complete packet)
	We use the/my/her etc. before whole. Compare whole and all: her whole life but all her life
	We do not normally use whole with uncountable nouns. We say: I've spent all the money you gave me. (not the whole money)
E	Every/all/whole with time words
	We use every to say how often something happens (every day / every Monday / every ten minutes / every three weeks etc.): When we were on holiday, we went to the beach every day. (not all days) The bus service is excellent. There's a bus every ten minutes. We don't see each other very often – about every six months.
	All day / the whole day = the complete day from beginning to end: We spent all day / the whole day on the beach. Dan was very quiet. He didn't say a word all evening / the whole evening. Note that we say all day (not all the day), all week (not all the week) etc.
	Compare all the time and every time: They never go out. They are at home all the time. (= always, continuously) Every time I see you, you look different. (= each time, on every occasion)

Relative clauses 1: clauses with who/that/which

5	Look at this example sentence:
i	The woman who lives next door is a doctor.
ı	relative clause —
١	A clause is a part of a sentence. A relative clause tells us which person or thing (or what kind of person or thing) the speaker means:
ı	The woman who lives next door ('who lives next door' tells us which woman)
ı	People who live in the country ('who live in the country' tells us what kind of people)
ı	We use who in a relative clause when we are talking about people (not things):
ı	the woman – she lives next door – is a doctor
ł	The woman who lives next door is a doctor.
ı	we know a lot of people – they live in the country
ı	· ·
ı	We know a lot of people who live in the country.
ı	An architect is someone who designs buildings.
ı	What was the name of the person who phoned?
ı	Anyone who wants to apply for the job must do so by Friday.
۱	You can also use that (instead of who), but you can't use which for people: The woman that lives next door is a doctor. (not the woman which)
ı	Sometimes you must use who (not that) for people – see Unit 95.
	When we are talking about things, we use that or which (not who) in a relative clause:
ı	where is the cheese? – it was in the fridge
ı	that]
ı	Where is the cheese that was in the fridge?
ı	I don't like stories that have unhappy endings. (or stories which have) ı	Grace works for a company that makes furniture. (or a company which makes furniture)
ı	 The machine that broke down is working again now. (or The machine which broke down)
J	That is more usual than which, but sometimes you must use which – see Unit 95.
	Remember that in relative clauses we use who/that/which, not he/she/they/it.
1	Compare:
۱	'Who's that woman?' 'She lives next door to me.' I've never spoken to the woman who lives next door. (not the woman she lives)
۱	Where is the cheese? It was in the fridge.
J	Where is the cheese that was in the fridge? (not the cheese it was)
S	What = 'the thing(s) that'. Compare what and that:
	What happened was my fault. (= the thing that happened) but Even thing that happened was my fault (not Even thing what happened)
	 Everything that happened was my fault. (not Everything what happened) The machine that broke down is now working again. (not The machine what broke down)

Relative clauses 3: whose/whom/where

Whose
We use	whose in relative clauses instead of his/her/their:
	we helped some people – their car had broken down
-	We helped some people whose car had broken down.
	The transfer of the party of th
We use	whose mostly for people:
	A widow is a woman whose husband is dead. (her husband is dead)
9	What's the name of the man whose car you borrowed? (you borrowed his car)
Compar	I met someone whose brother I went to school with. (I went to school with his/her brothe who and whose:
	I met a man who knows you. (he knows you)

Whom
Whom	s possible instead of who when it is the object of the verb in the relative clause (like the

0	George is a person whom I admire very much. (I admire him)
You can	also use whom with a preposition (to whom / from whom / with whom etc.):
0	I like the people with whom I work. (I work with them)
Whom i	s a formal word and we do not often use it in this way. We usually prefer who or that, or the factor of the second second second	(see Unit 93). So we usually say:
9	a person who/that I admire a lot or a person I admire a lot
0	the people who/that I work with or the people I work with Where
You can	use where in a relative clause to talk about a place:
	the restaurant – we had lunch there – it was near the airport
-	The restaurant where we had lunch was near the airport.
0	I recently went back to the town where I grew up.
	(or the town I grew up in or the town that I grew up in)

0	The last time (that) I saw Anna, she looked great.
0	I haven't seen Jack and Helen since the year (that) they got married.
We say:

-ing and -ed clauses (the woman talking to Tom, the boy injured in the accident)

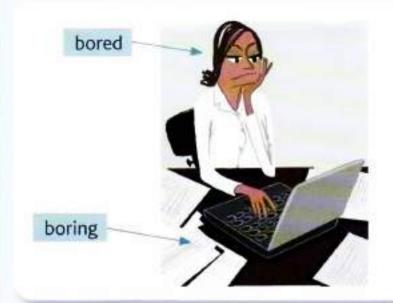

A clause is a part of a sentence. Some clauses begin with -ing or -ed. For example:

	Do you know the woman talking to Tom ? -ing clause the woman talking to Tom
	The boy injured in the accident was taken to hospital. -ed clause the boy injured in the accident
В	We use -ing clauses to say what somebody (or something) is (or was) doing at a particular time:
	 Do you know the woman talking to Tom? (the woman is talking to Tom) Police investigating the crime are looking for three men. (police are investigating the crime) Who were those people waiting outside? (they were waiting) I was woken up by a bell ringing. (a bell was ringing)
	You can also use an -ing clause to say what happens all the time, not just at a particular time. For example: The road connecting the two villages is very narrow. (the road connects the two villages) I have a large room overlooking the garden. (the room overlooks the garden) Can you think of the name of a flower beginning with T? (the name begins with T)
C	-ed clauses have a passive meaning: The boy injured in the accident was taken to hospital. (he was injured in the accident) George showed me some pictures painted by his father. (they had been painted by his father)
	Injured and invited are past participles. Note that many past participles are irregular and do not end in -ed (stolen/made/written etc.): The police never found the money stolen in the robbery. Most of the goods made in this factory are exported.
	You can use left in this way, with the meaning 'not used, still there': We've eaten nearly all the chocolates. There are only a few left .
D	We often use -ing and -ed clauses after there is / there was etc. : There were some children swimming in the river. Is there anybody waiting? There was a big red car parked outside the house.

Adjectives: a nice new house, you look tired

Α

Sometimes we use two or more adjectives together:

- My brother lives in a nice new house.
- In the kitchen there was a beautiful large round wooden table.

Adjectives like new/large/round/wooden are fact adjectives. They give us factual information about age, size, colour etc.

Adjectives like nice/beautiful are opinion adjectives. They tell us what somebody thinks of something or somebody.

Opinion adjectives usually go before fact adjectives.

	opinion	fact
a	nice	long	summer holiday an	interesting	young	man
	delicious	hot	vegetable soup
а	beautiful	large round wooden	table

В

Sometimes we use two or more fact adjectives together. Usually (but not always) we put fact adjectives in this order:

a tall young man $(1 \rightarrow 2)$ big blue eyes $(1 \rightarrow 3)$ a small black plastic bag $(1 \rightarrow 3 \rightarrow 5)$ a large wooden table $(1 \rightarrow 5)$ an old Russian song $(2 \rightarrow 4)$ an old white cotton shirt $(2 \rightarrow 3 \rightarrow 5)$

Adjectives of size and length (big/small/tall/short/long etc.) usually go before adjectives of shape and width (round/fat/thin/slim/wide etc.):

- a large round table
- a tall thin girl
- a long narrow street

When there are two or more colour adjectives, we use and:

- a black and white dress
- a red, white and green flag

This does not usually happen with other adjectives before a noun:

a long black dress (not a long and black dress)

C

We use adjectives after be/get/become/seem:

- Be careful!
- I'm tired and I'm getting hungry.
- As the film went on, it became more and more boring.
- Your friend seems very nice.

We also use adjectives to say how somebody/something looks, feels, sounds, tastes or smells:

- You look tired. / I feel tired. / She sounds tired.
- The dinner smells good.
- This tea tastes a bit strange.

But to say how somebody does something you must use an adverb (see Units 100-101):

- Drive carefully! (not Drive careful)
- Susan plays the piano very well. (not plays ... very good)

We say 'the first two days / the next few weeks / the last ten minutes' etc. :

- I didn't enjoy the first two days of the course. (not the two first days)
- They'll be away for the next few weeks. (not the few next weeks)

Unit 100 Adjectives and adverbs 1 (quick/quickly)

	 Our holiday was too short – the time passed very quickly. Two people were seriously injured in the accident.
Quickly and seriously are adverbs. Many adverbs	Quickly and seriously are adverbs. Many adverbs are formed from an adjective + -ly:
adjective: quick serious careful adverb: quickly seriously careful For spelling, see Appendix 6.	l quiet heavy bad
Not all words ending in -ly are adverbs. Some adje friendly lively elderly lonely	ctives end in -ly too, for example: silly lovely Adjective or adverb?
Adjectives (quick/careful etc.) tell us about a noun (somebody or something). We use adjectives before nouns:	Adverbs (quickly/carefully etc.) tell us about a verb (how somebody does something or how something happens):
 Sam is a careful driver. (not a carefully driver) We didn't go out because of the heavy rain. 	 Sam drove carefully along the narrow road. (not drove careful) We didn't go out because it was raining heavily. (not raining heavy)
Compare:
She speaks perfect English. adjective + noun	She speaks English perfectly.
We also use adjectives after some verbs, especially Compare:	be, and also look/feel/sound etc.
 Please be quiet. I was disappointed that my exam results were so bad. Why do you always look so serious? I feel happy. 	 Please speak quietly. I was unhappy that I did so badly in the exam. (not did so bad) Why do you never take me seriously? The children were playing happily.
We also use adverbs before adjectives and other ad	verbs. For example:
reasonably cheap (adverb + adjective) terribly sorry (adverb + adjective) incredibly quickly (adverb + adverb) terribly sorry (adverb + adjective)	you. (not terrible sorry)

Unit Adjectives and adverbs 2 101 (well/fast/late, hard/hardly)

	(Wetti lastificate) i.u. Si i.u. Si
A	Good/well
	Good is an adjective. The adverb is well: Your English is good. but You speak English well. Susan is a good pianist. but Susan plays the piano well.
	We use well (not good) with past participles (dressed/known etc.): well-dressed well-known well-educated well-paid Gary's father is a well-known writer.
	But well is also an adjective with the meaning 'in good health': 'How are you today?' 'I'm very well , thanks.'
В	Fast/hard/late
	These words are both adjectives and adverbs: adjective adverb Darren is a very fast runner. Darren can run very fast. Kate is a hard worker. Kate works hard. (not works hardly) I was late. I got up late this morning. Lately = recently: Have you seen Tom lately?
C	Hardly
	Hardly = very little, almost not. Study these examples: Sarah wasn't very friendly at the party. She hardly spoke to me. (= she spoke to me very little, almost not at all) We've only met once or twice. We hardly know each other. Hard and hardly are different. Compare: He tried hard to find a job, but he had no luck. (= he tried a lot, with a lot of effort) I'm not surprised he didn't find a job. He hardly tried. (= he tried very little)
	I can hardly do something = it's very difficult for me, almost impossible: Your writing is terrible. I can hardly read it. (= it is almost impossible to read it) My leg was hurting. I could hardly walk.
D	You can use hardly + any/anybody/anyone/anything/anywhere: A: How much money have we got? B: Hardly any. (= very little, almost none) These two cameras are very similar. There's hardly any difference between them. The exam results were very bad. Hardly anybody in our class passed. (= very few students passed) Note that you can say: She said hardly anything. or She hardly said anything. We've got hardly any money. or We've hardly got any money.
	Hardly ever = almost never: I'm nearly always at home in the evenings. I hardly ever go out. Hardly also means 'certainly not'. For example: It's hardly surprising that you're tired. You haven't slept for three days. (= it's certainly not surprising) The situation is serious, but it's hardly a crisis. (= it's certainly not a crisis)

Unit 102 So and such

A	Compare so and such:
	We use so + adjective/adverb: so stupid so quick so nice so quickly	We use such + noun: such a story such people We also use such + adjective + noun: such a stupid story such nice people
	 I didn't like the book. The story was so stupid. I like Liz and Joe. They are so nice. 	 I didn't like the book. It was such a stupid story. (not a so stupid story) I like Liz and Joe. They are such nice people. (not so nice people)
		We say such a (not a such): such a big dog (not a such big dog)
В	So and such make the meaning stronger:
	 It's a beautiful day, isn't it? It's so warm. (= really warm) It's difficult to understand him because he talks so quietly. 	 It was a great holiday. We had such a good time. (= a really good time) You always think good things are going to happen. You're such an optimist.
	You can use so that: The book was so good that I couldn't put it down. I was so tired that I fell asleep in the armchair.	You can use such that: It was such a good book that I couldn't put it down. It was such nice weather that we spent the whole day on the beach.
	We usually leave out that : I was so tired I fell asleep.	We usually leave out that : It was such nice weather we spent
C	We also use so and such with the meaning 'like thi	s':
	 Somebody told me the house was built 100 years ago. I didn't realise it was so old. (= as old as it is) I'm tired because I got up at six. I don't usually get up so early. I expected the weather to be cooler. I'm surprised it is so warm. 	 I didn't realise it was such an old house. You know it's not true. How can you say such a thing? Note the expression no such: You won't find the word 'blid' in the dictionary. There's no such word. (= this word does not exist)
D	Compare:
	so long I haven't seen her for so long I've forgotten what she looks like.	such a long time I haven't seen her for such a long time. (not so long time)
	so far I didn't know it was so far.	such a long way I didn't know it was such a long way.
	so much, so many I'm sorry I'm late – there was so much traffic.	such a lot (of) I'm sorry I'm late – there was such a lot of traffic.

Unit 103 Enough and too

	Thought and too
A	Enough goes after adjectives and adverbs: I can't run very far. I'm not fit enough. (not enough fit) Let's go. We've waited long enough. I can let you know tomorrow. Is that soon enough? Compare too and not enough: You never stop working. You work too hard. (= more than is necessary) You're lazy. You don't work hard enough. (= less than is necessary)
В	 Enough normally goes before nouns: I can't run very far. I don't have enough energy. (not energy enough) Do we have enough petrol, or should we stop and get some? We've got enough money. We don't need any more. Some of us had to sit on the floor because there weren't enough chairs.
	We also use enough alone (without a noun): We don't need to stop for petrol. We've got enough .
	Compare too much/many and enough: There's too much furniture in this room. There's not enough space. There were too many people and not enough chairs.
C	We say enough/too for somebody/something: Does Joe have enough experience for the job? This bag isn't big enough for all my clothes. That shirt is too small for you. You need a larger size.
	But we say enough/too to do something. For example: Does Joe have enough experience to do the job? (not for doing) We don't have enough money to go on holiday right now. She's not old enough to have a driving licence. She's too young to have a driving licence. Let's get a taxi. It's too far to walk home from here.
	The following example has both for and to : The bridge is just wide enough for two cars to pass each other .
D	We say:
	The food was very hot. We couldn't eat it. and The food was so hot that we couldn't eat it. but The food was too hot to eat. (without it)
	Some more examples like this: These boxes are too heavy to carry. (not to carry them) The wallet was too big to put in my pocket. (not to put it) This chair isn't strong enough to stand on. (not to stand on it)

103.1 Complete the sentences using enough + the following words:

Comparison 1 (cheaper, more expensive etc.)

THE R. P. LEWIS CO., LANSING	of Health Co.			577.5
A	Study	these	examp	les:

How shall we travel? Shall we drive or go by train?

Let's drive. It's cheaper.

Don't go by train. It's more expensive.

Cheaper and more expensive are comparative forms.

After comparatives you can use than (see Unit 107):

- It's cheaper to drive than go by train.
- Going by train is more expensive than driving.

B The comparative form is -er or more

We use -er for short words (one syllable):

 ${f cheap} ightarrow {f cheaper} \qquad {f fast} ightarrow {f faster} \ {f large} ightarrow {f larger} \qquad {f thin} ightarrow {f thinner}$

We also use -er for two-syllable words that end in -y (-y \rightarrow ier):

 $\begin{array}{ll} luck \textbf{y} \rightarrow luck \textbf{ier} & earl \textbf{y} \rightarrow earl \textbf{ier} \\ eas \textbf{y} \rightarrow eas \textbf{ier} & prett \textbf{y} \rightarrow prett \textbf{ier} \end{array}$

For spelling, see Appendix 6.

We use more ... for longer words (two syllables or more):

more serious more often more expensive more comfortable

We also use more ... for adverbs that end in -ly:

more slowly more seriously more easily more quietly

Compare these examples:

- You're older than me.
- The exam was quite easy easier than I expected.
- Can you walk a bit faster?
- I'd like to have a bigger car.
- Last night I went to bed earlier than usual.
- You're more patient than me.
- The exam was quite difficult more difficult than I expected.
- Can you walk a bit more slowly?
- I'd like to have a more reliable car.
- I don't play tennis much these days.
 I used to play more often.

You can use -er or more ... with some two-syllable adjectives, especially:

clever narrow quiet shallow simple

- It's too noisy here. Can we go somewhere quieter / more quiet?
- A few adjectives and adverbs have irregular comparative forms:

good/well → better

- The garden looks better since you tidied it up.
- I know him well probably better than anybody else knows him.

bad/badly → worse

- 'How's your headache? Better?' 'No, it's worse.'
 - He did very badly in the exam worse than expected.

far → further (or farther)

It's a long walk from here to the park – further than I thought. (or farther than)

Further (but not farther) can also mean 'more' or 'additional':

Let me know if you hear any further news. (= any more news)

Unit 106

Comparison 2 (much better / any better / better and better / the sooner the better)

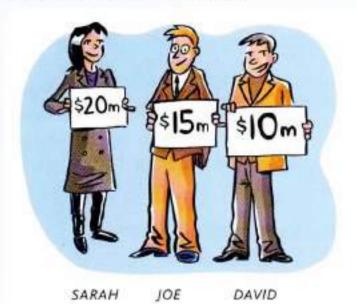

A	Before comparatives you can use: much a lot far (= a lot) a bit a little slightly (= a little)
	 Let's go by car. It's much cheaper. (or a lot cheaper) 'How do you feel now?' 'Much better, thanks.' Don't go by train. It's a lot more expensive. (or much more expensive) Could you speak a bit more slowly? (or a little more slowly) This bag is slightly heavier than the other one. Her illness was far more serious than we thought at first. (or much more serious / a lot more serious)
В	You can use any and no + comparative (any longer / no bigger etc.): I've waited long enough. I'm not waiting any longer. (= not even a little longer) We expected their apartment to be very big, but it's no bigger than ours. or it isn't any bigger than ours. (= not even a little bigger) How do you feel now? Do you feel any better? This hotel is better than the other one, and it's no more expensive.
C	Better and better / more and more etc.
	We repeat comparatives (better and better etc.) to say that something changes continuously: Your English is improving. It's getting better and better. The city has grown fast in recent years. It's got bigger and bigger. As I listened to his story, I became more and more convinced that he was lying. These days more and more people are learning English.
D	The the
	You can say the (sooner/bigger/more etc.) the better: 'What time shall we leave?' 'The sooner the better.' (= as soon as possible) A: What sort of box do you want? A big one? B: Yes, the bigger the better. (= as big as possible) When you're travelling, the less luggage you have the better.
	We also use the the to say that one thing depends on another thing: The warmer the weather, the better I feel. (= if the weather is warmer, I feel better) The sooner we leave, the earlier we will arrive. The younger you are, the easier it is to learn. The more expensive the hotel, the better the service. The more electricity you use, the higher your bill will be. The more I thought about the plan, the less I liked it.
E	Older and elder
	The comparative of old is older : David looks older than he really is.
	You can use elder (or older) when you talk about people in a family. You can say (my/your etc.) elder sister/brother/daughter/son: My elder sister is a TV producer. (or My older sister)
	We say 'my elder sister ', but we do not say that 'somebody is elder': My sister is older than me. (not elder than me)

Study this example situation:

Sarah, Joe and David are all very rich. Sarah has $20 million, Joe has $15 million and David has $10 million. So:

Joe is rich.

He is richer than David.

But he isn't as rich as Sarah. (= Sarah is richer than he is)

Some more examples of not as (as):
Jack isn't as old as he looks. (= he looks older than he is)
The town centre wasn't as crowded as usual. (= it is usually more crowded)
Lisa didn't do as well in the exam as she had hoped. (= she had hoped to do better)
The weather is better today. It's not as cold. (= yesterday was colder than today)
O I don't know as many people as you do. (= you know more people than me)
How much did it cost? Fifty pounds?' 'No, not as much as that.' (= less than fifty po	unds
You can also say not so (as):
It's not warm, but it isn't so cold as yesterday. (= it isn't as cold as)
Less than is similar to not as as:
I spent less money than you. (= I didn't spend as much money as you)
The city centre was less crowded than usual. (= it wasn't as crowded as usual)
I play tennis less than I used to. (= I don't play as much as I used to)
We also use as as (but not so as) in positive sentences and in questions:
☐ I'm sorry I'm late. I got here as fast as I could.
There's plenty of food. You can have as much as you want.
Let's walk. It's just as quick as taking the bus.
Can you send me the information as soon as possible, please?
Also twice as as, three times as as etc. :
 Petrol is twice as expensive as it was a few years ago.
Their house is about three times as big as ours.
We say the same as (not the same like):
 Laura's salary is the same as mine. or Laura gets the same salary as me.
David is the same age as James.
 Sarah hasn't changed. She still looks the same as she did ten years ago.
Than me / than I am etc.
You can say:
You're taller than me. or You're taller than I am.
(not usually You're taller than I)
He's not as clever as her. or He's not as clever as she is.
They have more money than us or They have more money than we have

I can't run as fast as him.

Unit 108

Superlatives (the longest / the most enjoyable etc.)

A	Study these examples:
	What is the longest river in the world? What was the most enjoyable holiday you've ever had?
	Longest and most enjoyable are superlative forms.
	The superlative form is -est or most In general, we use -est for short words and most for longer words. The rules are the same as those for the comparative – see Unit 105. long → longest hot → hottest easy → easiest hard → hardest but most famous most boring most difficult most expensive A few adjectives are irregular: good → best bad → worst far → furthest/farthest
	For spelling, see Appendix 6.
В	We normally use the before a superlative (the longest / the most famous etc.): Yesterday was the hottest day of the year. The movie was really boring. It's the most boring movie I've ever seen. She is a really nice person – one of the nicest people I know. Why does he always come to see me at the worst possible time?
	Compare superlative and comparative:
	This hotel is the cheapest in town. (superlative) It's cheaper than all the others in town. (comparative)
	 He's the most patient person I've ever met. He's much more patient than I am.
C	Oldest and eldest
-	The superlative of old is oldest : That church is the oldest building in the town. (not the eldest)
	We use eldest (or oldest) when we are talking about people in a family: My eldest son is 13 years old. (or My oldest son) Are you the eldest in your family? (or the oldest)
D	After superlatives we normally use in with places: What's the longest river in the world? (not of the world) We had a nice room. It was one of the best in the hotel. (not of the hotel)
	We also use in for organisations and groups of people (a class / a company etc.): Who is the youngest student in the class ? (not of the class)
	For a period of time, we normally use of: Yesterday was the hottest day of the year. What was the happiest day of your life?
E	We often use the present perfect (I have done) after a superlative (see also Unit 8A): What's the most important decision you've ever had to make? That was the best holiday I've had for a long time.
216	Comparison (cheaper / more expensive etc.) → Units 105–107 Elder → Unit 106E

Word order 1: verb + object; place and time

Verb + object

The verb and the object normally go together. We do not usually put other words between them:

verb + object

I like my job very much. (not I like very much my job)

Did you see your friends yesterday?

Helen never drinks coffee.

Study these examples. The verb and the object go together each time:

- Do you eat meat every day? (not Do you eat every day meat?)
- Everybody enjoyed the party very much. (not enjoyed very much the party)
- Our guide spoke English fluently. (not spoke fluently English)
- I lost all my money and I also lost my passport .
 (not I lost also my passport)
- At the end of the street you'll see a supermarket on your left.

 (not see on your left a supermarket)

Place and time

Usually the verb and the place (where?) go together:

go home live in a city walk to work etc.

If the verb has an object, the place comes after the verb + object:

take somebody home meet a friend in the street

Time (when? / how often? / how long?) usually goes after place:

Ben walks to work every morning. (not every morning to work)
Sam has been in Canada since April.
We arrived at the airport early.

Study these examples. Time goes after place:

- I'm going to Paris on Monday . (not I'm going on Monday to Paris)
- They have lived in the same house for a long time.
- Don't be late. Make sure you're here by 8 o'clock
- Sarah gave me a lift home after the party .
- O You really shouldn't go to bed so late .

It is often possible to put time at the beginning of the sentence:

- On Monday I'm going to Paris.
- Every morning Ben walks to work.

Some time words (for example, always/never/usually) go with the verb in the middle of the sentence. See Unit 110.

Unit Still, yet and already 111 Any more / any longer / no longer

A	Still
	We use still to say that a situation or action is continuing. It hasn't changed or stopped: It's 10 o'clock and Joe is still in bed. When I went to bed, Chris was still working. Do you still want to go away or have you changed your mind?
	Still usually goes in the middle of the sentence with the verb (see Unit 110).
В	Any more / any longer / no longer
	We use not any more or not any longer to say that a situation has changed. Any more and any longer go at the end of a sentence: Lucy doesn't work here any more (or any longer). She left last month. (not Lucy doesn't still work here.) We used to be good friends, but we aren't any more (or any longer).
	You can also use no longer . No longer goes in the middle of the sentence: Lucy no longer works here. Note that we do not normally use no more in this way: We are no longer friends. (not We are no more friends.)
	Compare still and not any more : Sally still works here, but Lucy doesn't work here any more .
	Yet = until now. We use yet mainly in negative sentences (He isn't here yet) and questions (Is he here yet?). Yet shows that the speaker is expecting something to happen. Yet usually goes at the end of a sentence: It's 10 o'clock and Joe isn't here yet. Have you met your new neighbours yet? 'Where are you going on holiday?' 'We don't know yet.' We often use yet with the present perfect (Have you met yet?'). See Unit 7D. Compare yet and still: Mike lost his job six months ago and is still unemployed. Mike lost his job six months ago and hasn't found another job yet. Is it still raining? Has it stopped raining yet? Still is also possible in negative sentences (before the negative): She said she would be here an hour ago and she still hasn't come. This is similar to 'she hasn't come yet'. But stillnot shows a stronger feeling of surprise or
D	This is similar to 'she hasn't come yet'. But still not shows a stronger feeling of surprise or impatience. Compare: I sent him an invitation last week. He hasn't replied yet. (but I expect he will reply soon) I sent him an invitation weeks ago and he still hasn't replied. (he should have replied before now) Already
	We use already to say that something happened sooner than expected. Already usually goes in the middle of a sentence (see Unit 110): 'What time is Sue leaving?' 'She has already left.' (= sooner than you expected) Shall I tell Joe what happened or does he already know? I've just had lunch and I'm already hungry.

111.1 Compare what Paul said a few years ago with what he says now. Some things are the same as before and some things have changed. Write sentences with still and any more.

For each sentence (with still) write a sentence with a similar meaning using not ... yet + one of the following verbs:

	decide	find	finish	go -s	top	take off	wake up
1	It's still r	aining.				t hasn't st	opped raining yet	*
2	Gary is s	till here.			He
3	They're	still repa	iring the ro	oad.	Th	ey
4	The child	dren are	still asleep
5	Is Ann st	ill lookir	ng for a pla	ce to live?				?
6	I'm still	wonderi	ng what to	do.
7	The plan	e is still	waiting on	the runway	y

Put in still, yet, already or any more in the underlined sentence (or part of the sentence).

Study the examples carefully.

-	and the same plant and the same
1	Mike lost his job a year ago and he is unemployed. He is still unemployed
2	Shall I tell Joe what happened or does he know? does he already know?
	I'm hungry. Is dinner ready? Is dinner ready yet?
4	I was hungry earlier, but I'm not hungry. I'm not hungry any more
	Can we wait a few minutes? I don't want to go out.
6	Amy used to work at the airport, but she doesn't work there.
7	I used to live in Amsterdam. I have a lot of friends there.
8	'Shall I introduce you to Joe?' 'There's no need. We've met.'
9	Do you live in the same place or have you moved?
0	Would you like to eat with us or have you eaten?
11	'Where's John?' 'He's not here. He'll be here soon.'
12	Tim said he'd be here at 8.30. It's 9 o'clock now and he isn't here.
13	Do you want to join the club or are you a member ?
14	It happened a long time ago, but I can remember it very clearly.
15	I've put on weight. These trousers don't fit me.
16	'Have you finished with the paper?' 'No I'm reading it'

Even

Study this example situation:

Tina loves watching television.

She has a TV in every room of the house, even the bathroom.

We use even to say that something is unusual or surprising. It is not usual to have a TV in the bathroom.

Some	more examples:
C	These pictures are really awful. Even I take better pictures than these. (and I'm certainly not a good photographer)
C	He always wears a coat, even in hot weather.
	The print was very small. I couldn't read it, even with glasses.
C	Nobody would help her, not even her best friend.
or	Not even her best friend would help her.
You ca	on use even with the verb in the middle of a sentence (see Unit 110):
(Sue has travelled all over the world. She has even been to the Antarctic.

В	You can use even with the verb in the middle of a sentence (see Unit 110): Sue has travelled all over the world. She has even been to the Antarctic. (It's especially unusual to go to the Antarctic, so she must have travelled a lot. They are very rich. They even have their own private jet.
	Study these examples with even after a negative (not/can't/don't etc.): I can't cook. I can't even boil an egg. (and boiling an egg is very easy) They weren't very friendly to us. They didn't even say hello. Jessica is very fit. She's just run five miles and she's not even out of breath.

C	You can use even + comparative (cheaper / more expensive etc.):
	 I got up very early, but Jack got up even earlier.
	 I knew I didn't have much money, but I've got even less than I thought.
	We were surprised to get an email from her. We were even more surprised when she came to see us a few days later.

Even though / even when / even if

We use even though / even when / even if + subject + verb:

Even though she can't drive, she bought a car.

Subject + verb

He never shouts, even when he's angry.

This river is dangerous. It's dangerous to swim in it, even if you're a strong swimmer.

You cannot use even in this way (+ subject + verb). We say:

You cannot use even in this way (+ subject + verb). We say:

Even though she can't drive, she bought a car. (not Even she can't drive)

I can't reach the shelf even if I stand on a chair. (not even I stand)

Compare even if and if:

We're going to the beach tomorrow. It doesn't matter what the weather is like.

We're going even if it's raining.

We want to go to the beach tomorrow, but we won't go if it's raining.

Although / though / even though In spite of / despite

Study this example situation:

Last year Paul and Sarah had a holiday by the sea. It rained a lot, but they enjoyed it.

You can say:

Although it rained a lot, they enjoyed it. (= It rained a lot, but they ...)

or

In spite of Despite the rain, they enjoyed it.

В	After although we use a subject + verb: Although it rained a lot, we enjoyed our holiday.
	I didn't get the job although I had the necessary qualifications.
	Compare the meaning of although and because: We went out although it was raining heavily.
	 We didn't go out because it was raining heavily.
C	After in spite of or despite, we use a noun, a pronoun (this/that/what etc.) or -ing: In spite of the rain, we enjoyed our holiday.
	I didn't get the job in spite of having the necessary qualifications.
	She wasn't well, but in spite of this she continued working.
	 In spite of what I said yesterday, I still love you.
	Despite is the same as in spite of. We say in spite of, but despite (without of): She wasn't well, but despite this she continued working. (not despite of this)
	She wasn't well, but despite this she continued working. (not despite of this)
	You can say in spite of the fact (that) and despite the fact (that) :
	I didn't get the job { in spite of the fact (that) despite the fact (that) } I had the necessary qualifications.
	Compare in spite of and because of:
	We went out in spite of the rain. (or despite the rain.)
	We didn't go out because of the rain .
D	Compare although and in spite of / despite:
	Although the traffic was bad, In spite of the traffic, we arrived on time. (not In spite of the traffic was bad)
	☐ I couldn't sleep { although I was very tired. (not despite I was tired) despite being very tired.
E	Though is the same as although:
	I didn't get the job though I had the necessary qualifications.
	In spoken English we often use though at the end of a sentence:
	 The house isn't so nice. I like the garden though. (= but I like the garden) I see them every day. I've never spoken to them though. (= but I've never spoken to them)
	Even though (but not 'even' alone) is a stronger form of although: Even though I was really tired, I couldn't sleep. (not Even I was really tired)

117.1 In some of these sentences, you need like (not as). Correct the sentences where necessary.

Like / as if / as though

A	You can use like to say how somebody or something looks/sounds/feels: That house looks like it's going to fall down. Helen sounded like she had a cold, didn't she? I've just got back from holiday, but I feel very tired. I don't feel like I've had a holiday.
	You can also use as if or as though in all these examples: That house looks as if it's going to fall down. Helen sounded as if she had a cold, didn't she? I don't feel as though I've had a holiday.
8	Compare: You look tired. (look + adjective) You look like you haven't slept. (look like + subject + verb)
	As if and as though are more formal than like.
B	You can say It looks like / It sounds like : Sarah is very late, isn't she? It looks like she isn't coming. We took an umbrella because it looked like it was going to rain. The noise is very loud next door. It sounds like they're having a party.
	You can also use as if or as though: It looks as if she isn't coming. or It looks as though she isn't coming. It looked as if it was going to rain. It sounds as though they're having a party.

D	After as if (or as though), we sometimes use the past when we are talking about the present . For example: I don't like Tim. He talks as if he knew everything.
	The meaning is not past in this sentence. We use the past (as if he knew) because the idea is not real: Tim does not know everything. We use the past in the same way in other sentences with if and wish (see Unit 39). Like is not normally used in this way.
The same	Some more examples: She's always asking me to do things for her – as if I didn't have enough to do already. (I do have enough to do) Gary's only 40. Why do you talk about him as if he was an old man? (he isn't an old man)
100	When you use the past in this way, you can use were instead of was: Why do you talk about him as if he were (or was) an old man? They treat me as if I were (or was) their own son. (I'm not their son)

Unit 122 On time and in time At the end and in the end

١	On time and in time
	On time = punctual, not late. If something happens on time, it happens at the time that was planned: The 11.45 train left on time. (= it left at 11.45) 'I'll meet you at 7.30.' 'OK, but please be on time.' (= don't be late, be there at 7.30) The conference was well-organised. Everything began and finished on time.
	The opposite of on time is late : Be on time . Don't be late .
	In time (for something / to do something) = soon enough: Will you be home in time for dinner? (= soon enough for dinner) I've sent Tracey a birthday present. I hope it arrives in time (for her birthday). (= on or before her birthday) I'm in a hurry. I want to get home in time to see the game on TV. (= soon enough to see the game)
	The opposite of in time is too late : I got home too late to see the game on TV.
	You can say just in time (= almost too late): We got to the station just in time for our train. A child ran into the road in front of the car – I managed to stop just in time .
١	At the end and in the end
l	At the end (of something) = at the time when something ends. For example:
	at the end of the month at the end of January at the end of the game at the end of the film at the end of the course at the end of the concert
	 I'm going away at the end of January / at the end of the month. At the end of the concert, everyone applauded. The players shook hands at the end of the game.
	We do not say 'in the end of'. So you cannot say 'in the end of January' or 'in the end of the concert'.
	The opposite of at the end (of) is at the beginning (of): I'm going away at the beginning of January. (not in the beginning)
	In the end = finally.
	We use in the end when we say what the final result of a situation was: We had a lot of problems with our car. We sold it in the end. (= finally we sold it) He got more and more angry. In the end he just walked out of the room. Alan couldn't decide where to go for his holidays. He didn't go anywhere in the end. (not at the end)
	The opposite of in the end is usually at first : At first we didn't get on very well, but in the end we became good friends.

Appendix 5 Short forms (I'm / you've / didn't etc.)

In spoken English we usually say I'm / you've / didn't etc. (short forms or contractions) rather than I am / you have / did not etc. We also use these short forms in informal writing (for example, a letter or message to a friend).

When we write short forms, we use an apostrophe (') for the missing letter(s):

 $I'm = I \underline{a}m$ you've = you have didn't = did not

5.2 List of short forms:

' m = am	l'm
's = is or has		he's	she's	it's
're = are					you're	we're	they're
've = have	l've				you've	we've	they've
'll = will	ľll	he'll	she'll		you'll	we'll	they'll
'd = would or had	l'd	he'd	she'd		you'd	we'd	they'd

's can be is or has:

PER 1 111	er
She's III	(= She is ill.)
will have an inter-	2110 12 1511

She's gone away. (= She has gone)

but let's = let us:

Let's go now. (= Let us go)

'd can be would or had:

I'd see a doctor	if I were you.	(= I would see)
------------------	----------------	-----------------

I'd never seen her before. (= I had never seen)

We use some of these short forms (especially 's) after question words (who/what etc.) and after that/there/here:

who's what's where's how's that's there's here's who'll there'll who'd

Who's that woman over there? (= who is)

○ What's happened? (= what has)

Do you think there'll be many people at the party? (= there will)

We also use short forms (especially 's) after a noun:

Katherine's going out tonight. (= Katherine is)

My best friend's just got married. (= My best friend has)

You cannot use 'm / 's / 're / 've / 'll / 'd at the end of a sentence (because the verb is stressed in this position):

'Are you tired?' 'Yes, I am.' (not Yes, I'm.)

Do you know where she is? (not Do you know where she's?)

5.3 Negative short forms isn't aren't wasn't weren't	(= is not) (= are not) (= was not) (= were not)	don't doesn't didn't	(= do not) (= does not) (= did not)	haven't hasn't hadn't	(= have not) (= has not) (= had not) can't	(= cannot)	couldn't	(= could not)	mustn't	(= must not) won't	(= will not)	wouldn't	(= would not)	needn't	(= need not) shan't	(= shall not)	shouldn't	(= should not)	daren't	(= dare not)

Negative short forms for is and are can be:

he isn't / she isn't / it isn't or he's not / she's not / it's not you aren't / we aren't / they aren't or you're not / we're not / they're not

Appendix 6 Spelling

6.1 Nouns, verbs and adjectives can have the following endings:

noun + -s/-es (plural)	book s	idea s	match es
verb + -s/-es (after he/she/it)	work s	enjoy s	wash es verb + -ing	working	enjoy ing	wash ing
verb + -ed	worked	enjoy ed	wash ed
adjective + -er (comparative)	cheap er	quick er	brighter adjective + -est (superlative)	cheap est	quick est	brightest adjective + -ly (adverb)	cheaply	quick ly	brightly

When we use these endings, there are sometimes changes in spelling. These changes are listed below.

6.2 Nouns and verbs + -s/-es

The ending is -es when the word ends in -s/-ss/-sh/-ch/-x:

bus/buses

miss/misses wash/washes match/matches search/searches

box/boxes

Note also:

potato/potatoes tomato/tomatoes

do/does go/goes

6.3 Words ending in -y (baby, carry, easy etc.)

If a word ends in a consonant* + y (-by/-ry/-sy/-vy etc.)

y changes to ie before the ending -s:

baby/babies

story/stories

country/countries

secretary/secretaries hurry/hurries study/studies

apply/applies try/tries

y changes to i before the ending -ed:

hurry/hurried study/studied apply/applied

try/tried

y changes to i before the endings -er and -est:

easy/easier/easiest heavy/heavier/heaviest lucky/luckier/luckiest

y changes to i before the ending -ly:

easy/easily heavy/heavily temporary/temporarily

y does not change before -ing:

hurrying studying applying trying

y does not change if the word ends in a vowel* + y (-ay/-ey/-oy/-uy):

play/plays/played mon

monkey/monkeys

enjoy/enjoys/enjoyed buy/buys

An exception is: day/daily

Note also: pay/paid lay/laid say/said

6.4 Verbs ending in -ie (die, lie, tie)

If a verb ends in -ie, ie changes to y before the ending -ing:

die/dying lie/lying tie/tying

The other letters (b c d f g etc.) are consonant letters.

^{*} a e i o u are vowel letters.

6.5

Words ending in -e (hope, dance, wide etc.)

Verbs

If a verb ends in -e, we leave out e before the ending -ing:

hope/hoping smile/smiling dance/dancing confuse/confusing

Exceptions are be/being and verbs ending in -ee: see/seeing agree/agreeing

If a verb ends in -e, we add -d for the past (of regular verbs):

hope/hoped smile/smiled dance/danced confuse/confused

Adjectives and adverbs

If an adjective ends in -e, we add -r and -st for the comparative and superlative:

wide/wider/widest late/later/latest large/larger/largest

If an adjective ends in -e, we keep e before -ly in the adverb:

polite/politely extreme/extremely absolute/absolutely

If an adjective ends in -le (simple, terrible etc.), the adverb ending is -ply, -bly etc. :

simple/simply terrible/terribly reasonable/reasonably

6.6 Doubling consonants (stop/stopping/stopped, wet/wetter/wettest etc.)

Sometimes a word ends in vowel + consonant. For example:

stop plan rub big wet thin prefer regret

Before the endings -ing/-ed/-er/-est, we double the consonant at the end. So $\mathbf{p} \to \mathbf{pp}$, $\mathbf{n} \to \mathbf{nn}$ etc. For example:

stop	$p \rightarrow pp$	sto pp ing	sto pp ed
plan	$n \rightarrow nn$	planning	planned
rub	$b \rightarrow bb$	ru bb ing	ru bb ed
big	$g \to \boldsymbol{g}\boldsymbol{g}$	bigger	bi gg est
wet	$t \rightarrow tt$	wetter	wettest
thin	$n \rightarrow nn$	thinner	thinnest

If the word has more than one syllable (prefer, begin etc.), we double the consonant at the end only if the final syllable is stressed:

preFER / preferring / preferred perMIT / permitting / permitted reGRET / regretting / regretted beGIN / beginning

If the final syllable is not stressed, we do not double the final consonant:

VISit / visiting / visited deVELop / developing / developed

HAPpen / happening / happened reMEMber / remembering / remembered

In British English, verbs ending in -I have -II- before -ing and -ed whether the final syllable is stressed or not:

travel / travelling / travelled cancel / cancelling / cancelled

For American spelling, see Appendix 7.

Note that we do not double the final consonant if the word ends in two consonants (-rt, -lp, -ng etc.):

start / starting / started help / helping / helped long / longer / longest we do not double the final consonant if there are two vowel letters before it (-oil, -eed etc.):

boil / boiling / boiled need / needing / needed explain / explaining / explained

cheap / cheaper / cheapest | loud / louder / loudest | quiet / quieter / quietest

we do not double y or w at the end of words. (At the end of words y and w are not consonants.)

stay / staying / stayed grow / growing new / newer / newest

Study guide

This guide is to help you decide which units you need to study. The sentences in the guide are grouped together (Present and past, Articles and nouns etc.) in the same way as the units in the Contents (pages iii-vi).

Each sentence can be completed using one or more of the alternatives (A, B, C etc.). There are between two and five alternatives each time. IN SOME SENTENCES MORE THAN ONE ALTERNATIVE IS POSSIBLE.

If you don't know or if you are not sure which alternatives are correct, then you probably need to study the unit(s) in the list on the right. You will also find the correct sentence in this unit. (If two or three units are listed, you will find the correct sentence in the first one.)

There is a key to this study guide on page 372.

Grammar words

This a list of words used in the explanations in this book.

active and passive

Many verbs can be active or passive. For example, build:

My grandfather built this house. (active)

This house was built by my grandfather. (passive)

The active sentence begins with My grandfather (the subject). This sentence tells us something about my grandfather and what he did (he built this house).

The passive sentence begins with This house (the subject). This sentence tells us something about the house (it was built by my grandfather).

Passive forms are be + past participle. Compare:

active passive

I can't repair it. It can't be repaired.

Somebody stole my wallet. My wallet was stolen.

Have they cleaned the room? Has the room been cleaned?

See Units 42-44.

adjective

An adjective is a word that tells us about somebody or something. Nice, tall, hungry, foreign and interesting are all adjectives.

Adjectives go before a noun:

a nice day foreign languages or after some verbs (be, get, seem, look, taste etc.)

she's tall this looks interesting

See Units 98-101, 65, 76 and 130-131.

adverb

Adverbs often end in -ly, for example:

slowly really fortunately

These -ly adverbs often tell us how somebody does something:

quietly carefully

safely

Other adverbs do not end in -ly. Many of these adverbs tell us where, when or how often something happens. Here, yesterday and always are all adverbs.

Some adverbs (for example very, really and absolutely) are used with adjectives:

very sorry really nice absolutely enormous

See Units 100, 101 and 110.

apostrophe

We use an apostrophe (') instead of the missing letter(s) in a short form:

l'm (= lam)

you've (= you have) didn't (= did not)

We also use an apostrophe + s (-'s) to show possession:

Rachel's car

my sister's friends

the cat's tail

See Unit 81 and Appendix 5.

article

A/an and the are articles. Articles are a type of determiner.

See Units 71-78.

auxiliary verb

We use auxiliary verbs together with other verbs:

we are going

the plane has landed

I can't help

do you know

In these examples, going, landed, help and know are the main verbs. Are, has, can and do are auxiliary verbs.

See Units 51-52.

clause

A clause is a whole sentence or a part of a sentence. There is always a verb in a clause. Examples of clauses:

I'm tired. (one clause, one sentence)

I'm tired and I want to go home. (two clauses, one sentence)

I was tired when I got home. (two clauses, one sentence)

Although I was tired, I went out, which wasn't a good idea. (three clauses, one sentence)

Some clauses begin with a participle (talking/standing/injured/stolen etc.):

Who were those people standing outside your office?

See Units 68 and 92-97.

comparative and superlative

Adjectives and adverbs have comparative and superlative forms.

The comparative form is -er or more ...:

old → older important → more important

The superlative form is -est or most ...:

old → oldest important → most important

See Units 105-108.

conjunction

A conjunction is a word that joins clauses. For example, in the following sentences but and if are conjunctions:

We were hungry, but there was nothing to eat.

If she gets the job, she'll be really happy.

Other conjunctions are and, so, or, when, because, although and that.

See Units 25, 38-40 and 113-120.

contraction see short form continuous

Continuous verb forms are be + -ing. For example:

l am working present continuous past continuous

I have been working present perfect continuous past perfect continuous

I will be working continuous infinitive (= future continuous)

I might be working continuous infinitive

I might have been working perfect continuous infinitive I pretended to be working to + continuous infinitive

See Units 1, 3-4, 6, 9-12, 16, 19, 24 and 54.

countable and uncountable see noun determiner

These words are determiners:

a, an, the (articles) my, your, his, her, its, our, their (possessives)

We use a determiner with a noun:

the airport your new car my best friend

The following words are determiners too (used with a noun), but they can also be pronouns (used without a noun):

this, that, these, those some, any, no, all many, much, few, little both, either, neither, each

For example:

I like this jacket. (determiner)

I like this. (pronoun)

See Units 71–78 and 85–91.

direct speech and reported speech

When we use direct speech, we use the words of the speaker. For example: Paul went home early. He said 'I'm not feeling good.'

When we use reported (or indirect) speech, we change I'm not to he wasn't: Paul went home early. He said he wasn't feeling good.

See Units 47-48.

future

To talk about the future, we use present tenses (I leave, I'm leaving etc.), will or (be) going to. See Units 19–25 and Appendix 3.

infinitive

The infinitive form of a verb is the form without any extra ending (the form you will find when you look in a dictionary). Sometimes this is called 'the base form'. So understand, dance and stay are infinitive forms:

He doesn't understand.

Let's dance.

We can't stay here.

The infinitive is often used with to:

It's hard to understand. I'm not going to dance. We don't want to stay here.

irregular verb see regular and irregular verbs

modal verb

The following are modal verbs:

can could will would shall should may might must ought

These verbs are followed by the infinitive (can see, should go, must work etc.).

See Units 21-41.

negative

The negative form is verb + not: I'm not, he did not (didn't), they cannot (can't) etc.

noun

A noun is a word for somebody or something. In the sentence My friend plays tennis most weekends.

friend, tennis and weekends are nouns.

A noun can be countable (friend/banana/weekend) or uncountable (tennis/water/electricity).

A countable noun can be singular (friend/banana/weekend) or plural (friends/bananas/weekends).

See Units 69-71.

object see subject and object participle see present participle and past participle passive see active and passive past see tense

past participle

The past participle of regular verbs ends in -ed (cleaned, danced, played etc.). Irregular verbs have different endings, for example lost, broken, done.

We use the past participle for perfect forms (have cleaned, had done etc.) and passive forms (is cleaned, was broken etc.).

See also Units 7, 42, 97 and Appendix 1 perfect

Perfect verb forms are have + past participle. For example:

she has gone present perfect
she had gone past perfect she must have gone perfect infinitive

she will have gone perfect infinitive (= future perfect)

she would like to have gone to + perfect infinitive

Perfect forms can also be continuous: I have been waiting / I had been waiting / I must have been waiting etc.

See Units 7–16, 24, 27–29, 33, 36, 40, 43, 45, 53–54 and 58.

phrasal verb

A phrasal verb is a verb + in/out/on/off/up/down/away/back etc. These words are sometimes called particles (a type of adverb). For example:

get on take off

off come back break down

keep up

Sometimes phrasal verbs are used for movement and direction:

Go away and don't come back!

I took my shoes off.

But often they have a special meaning. For example:

My brother and I don't get on very well. (= we don't have a good relationship)

There are a few problems I need to sort out. (= I need to solve)

Sometimes there is a preposition after a phrasal verb:

I don't get on with my brother.

Here, get on is a phrasal verb and with is a preposition.

See Units 137-145.

plural see singular and plural

preposition

Some examples of prepositions:

at, in, on, to, of, for, with, by, from, during

Prepositions are usually followed by a noun or pronoun:

I don't like going out at night.

They live in a small village.

What's the name of this street?

This is for you.

Sometimes (for example, in questions), there is a preposition at the end of a sentence:

What are you looking for?

See Units 121-136.

present see tense

present participle

The present participle ends in -ing (going, dancing, thinking etc.).

We use the present participle for continuous forms of the verb (I'm going, they were dancing etc.).

We also use participles in sentences like:

Joe hurt his knee playing football.

See Units 68 and 97.

pronoun

These words are pronouns:

I/me, you, he/him, she/her, we/us, they/them, it (personal pronouns) mine/yours/his/hers/ours/theirs (possessive pronouns) myself/yourself/themselves etc. (reflexive pronouns)

Other pronouns include:

someone/nobody/everything etc.

this/that/these/those

See Units 82-91. See also relative pronouns and determiners.

question tag

A question tag is a 'mini-question' that we sometimes put on the end of a sentence:

You haven't seen Kate, have you?

There was a lot of traffic, wasn't there?

See also Unit 52.

regular and irregular verbs

The past simple and past participle of regular verbs are the same and end in -ed. For example:

/ worked (past simple)

I have worked (past participle used with have)

Tom painted the room. (past simple)

The room will be painted. (past participle used in the passive)

The past simple and past participle of irregular verbs are sometimes the same and sometimes different. But they do not end in -ed. For example:

/lost (past simple)

I have lost (past participle with have)

Somebody stole my phone. (past simple)

My phone was stolen. (past participle used in the passive)

See Appendix 1.

relative clause

A relative clause gives information about something or somebody. Relative clauses often begin with relative pronouns (who, whom, whose, which, that):

An architect is a person who designs buildings.

Grace works for a company that makes furniture.

See Units 92-96.

relative pronoun see relative clause sentence

A sentence has one or more clauses.

My phone rang. (one clause)

My phone rang, so I answered it. (two clauses)

If my phone rings, can you answer it for me, please? (two clauses)

A sentence begins with a capital letter (A, B, C etc.) and ends with a full stop (.).

short form (or contraction)

In spoken English, we usually say I'm / you've / didn't etc. These are short forms or contractions. The full forms are I am / you have / did not.

When we write short forms, we use an apostrophe (') for the missing letters.

See Appendix 5.

singular and plural

A singular form is used for one person or thing. For example: flower, school, child.

A plural form is used for more than one person or thing. For example: flowers, schools, children.

Verbs sometimes have different forms for singular and plural. For example:

Where does she live? (singular)

Where do they live? (plural)

See Units 71 and 79.

subject and object

In the following sentences, Tom is the subject:

Tom is eating an apple.

Tom saw Helen.

Tom plays football.

After the subject, there is a verb (is eating, saw, plays) and an object (an apple, Helen, football). The object is what he's eating, who he saw, what he plays.

The subject normally goes before the verb (Tom is eating), and the object goes after the verb (eating an apple). In questions, the verb usually goes before the subject – see Unit 49A.

Some verbs (for example give, show, buy) can have two objects. For example:

Helen bought her mother a present.

Her mother is the indirect object (= the receiver) and a present is the direct object (what Helen bought).

See Units 42, 44A, 46B, 49, 55, 93, 94B, 95B and 137C.

subjunctive

The subjunctive has the same form as the infinitive: do, be, eat, play etc. You can use the subjunctive after insist, recommend, suggest etc. You can also use should:

I insisted that he apologise.

I insisted that he should apologise.

See Unit 34.

superlative see comparative syllable

A syllable is a part of a word. For example, the word remember has three syllables: re-mem-ber.

tense

A tense is a verb form that shows time. English verbs have two main tenses, present and past.

Present and past tenses can be simple or continuous. For example:

present

past

I walk (present simple)

I walked (past simple)

I am walking (present continuous)

I was walking (past continuous)

All of these can also be perfect (with have):

I have walked (present perfect simple)

I had walked (past perfect simple)

I have been walking (present perfect continuous)

I had been walking (past perfect continuous)

See Units 1-18 and Appendix 2.

uncountable see noun

verb

A verb is a word for an action (go, eat, work), a happening (rain, find, die) or a state (be, know, want). In the sentence is, wants and eat are all verbs.

Verbs have four or five different forms. For example:

infinitive (or base form)	+ 5	+ ing (present participle)	past simple	past participle work buy	works buys	working buying	worked bought	worked bought eat	eats	eating	ate	eaten

word order

Word order is the way words go together in a sentence. For example, we say:

a modern building (not a building modern)

I don't know where she is. (not I don't know where is she)

She always walks to work. (not She walks always)
